Rams Executives

CARROLL ROSENBLOOM, Owner and President

It could be coincidental that just about the time Carroll Rosenbloom arrived in Southern California to assume ownership of the local football franchise, the Rams started to win.

On the other hand, pro football watchers in Baltimore, where Rosenbloom's Colts recorded 16 consecutive winning seasons, will testify to a more accurate version — that the man knows how to win and has done so with amazing regularity in the NFL for more than two decades.

Four consecutive NFC Western Division titles have come to Los Angeles since Rosenbloom traded his Colts for the Rams in that historic transaction during July of 1972. Rosenbloom spent that fall in the role of an observer, but following a 6-7-1 season he made the first of many moves designed to bring a winner to Ram fans. He hired a Detroit Lions assistant named Chuck Knox to be his head coach, and what followed was a miraculous turnabout that happened so quickly that only the perfectionist Rosenbloom was ready for it.

In four seasons since he became the active Rams owner, the club has won nearly 80 per cent of its games, accumulated four division championships and has played for the conference crown in each of the last three seasons. The record is 44-11-1 with the team averaging 11 wins a year.

Rosenbloom's formula for his franchises' continuity of success has centered around his remarkable penchant for choosing winning coaches. Knox, for example, has turned into the winningest active head coach in the NFL and, in addition, other head coaches discovered and first hired by Rosenbloom have won four of the last nine Super Bowls.

Obviously, success is nothing new to Rosenbloom whose acquisition of the Rams culminated on July 14, 1972. Carroll had revived professional football in Baltimore in 1953 after a previous franchise there had been dissolved in 1950. From 1958 through '71 Rosenbloom's Colts built the best record in the NFL.

Carroll has a reputation as an interested and active owner. He is a frequent visitor at training camp and at practice sessions, and makes it his pleasure to know the players as individuals.

Besides his devotion to his own team, Carroll has always been a leader in NFL policy-making decisions. For example, he lent his business acumen and negotiating skill as a key force on the NFL Executive Committee which completed the merger agreement with the former American Football League.

Just as Rosenbloom was a positive force behind the success of the merger, so has he been a prime example of what excellent management can do in professional football. Perhaps the Rosenbloom success formula can best be explained by his philosophy: The man is totally dedicated to fan comfort and enjoyment. "The first objectives are to see that the fans are entertained and that they are comfortable," he believes.

The best way to do the former, he feels, is to play winning football. The best way to do the latter is to push for improved stadium conditions, a project that has occupied much of his time since moving to Southern California.

This fall, for example, Rosenbloom is responsible for a new seating configuration in the Coliseum that will bring 40,000 seats closer to the action by moving the field 20 yards west and installing 10,000 new bleacher seats in the east end zone.

Carroll likes to be described as a football executive, despite the fact that he is involved in many other ventures. Carroll is an active and resident owner. He and his beautiful wife, the former Georgia Hayes, live in Bel-Air.

A Baltimore native, Carroll attended Pennsylvania's Wharton School of Finance. He played halfback at Penn and also pitched for the school's baseball team. Golfing has been his game for relaxation, but since moving to the Southland he has revived an abiding interest in tennis.

He has also been active in civic affairs. This year Carroll served as National Chairman of the Victor Awards Banquet, benefitting the City of Hope.

DON KLOSTERMAN, Executive Vice-President and General Manager

There are many reasons for the success of the Rams during the last four years, such as the front office leadership of owner Carroll Rosenbloom or the on-the-field organization of head coach Chuck Knox.

Just as instrumental have been the personnel moves by Ram management, and much of the credit for the trading, drafting, waiving, claiming and signing during this period must go to Don Klosterman, the club's Executive Vice-President and General Manager.

During his 17 years as a pro football executive Klosterman has earned the admiration throughout the NFL for his work in the front office and personnel departments. Success has followed him wherever he has gone.

An example of this has been in Los Angeles, where Ram teams have won four consecutive division titles since Klosterman arrived back "home" in the summer of 1972, along with Rosenbloom, who had traded his Colts for the Rams and then persuaded his Baltimore general manager to go west with him.

It's in the important area of player personnel that Don has made a name for himself that is second to none in the NFL. The former Loyola University star quarterback helped build title-winning teams in San Diego, Kansas City and Houston before joining Rosenbloom in Baltimore.

During those early years Don became a driving force in the ultimate acceptance of the young American Football League.

Don began his front office career in 1960 as a scout with the fledgling Los Angeles Chargers who, sparked by players he had scouted, quickly became a dominate AFL power when the club moved to San Diego. Football men noted Klosterman's eye for talent, and one of them, Lamar Hunt, lured him to his Dallas Texans (now the Kansas City Chiefs) and more Klosterman signees helped turn Hunt's team into an eventual Super Bowl winner.

Next stop on the trail back to Los Angeles was Houston, where Klosterman became General Manager in 1966. A year later the Oilers had won the Eastern Division title of the AFL and the team never again finished lower than second under Don's leadership.

Then it was on to Baltimore in 1970 as Don was hired as general manager for Rosenbloom, whom Don calls "the best owner in all of professional sports."

Born in Lemars, Iowa, Don grew up in Compton, Calif. as one of 15 children. At Loyola, as "The Duke of Del Rey," he led the Lions through their most successful athletic era, setting seven NCAA passing records, including one for career completions (368) which lasted 13 years and another for most completions in a season (159) which stood for 12 years. One night, against Florida, he set three records — 33 completions in 63 attempts for 372 yards.

The university was grateful. It retired Don's jersey (No. 10) and in 1971 honored him as its "Alumnus of the Year." Today he is a member of its Board of Regents.

Don's pro football career began as Cleveland's first round draft choice. With Otto Graham as the Browns' incumbent QB, Don was traded to the old Dallas Texans, then to the Rams where he backed up Bob Waterfield and Norm Van Brocklin in 1952.

Following two years in the Air Force, Don played in Canada for the Calgary Stampeders, and at one time held the CFL record for the longest pass, 106 yards.

Don's active gridiron career ended in 1957 when he suffered near fatal injuries after veering during a high-speed ski run to miss a young person on the trail. He went off a cliff at approximately 45 m.p.h., and it took eight operations and 18 recuperative months before he was released from the hospital.

Doctors told Klosterman he would never walk again, and he took that as a challenge. Today, he not only walks, but swims, dances and golfs in the low 80s.

It sums up the determination and courage of the man and is testimony to his character.

STEVE ROSENBLOOM, Assistant to the President

Steve Rosenbloom, a 32-year-old executive who has worked in almost every phase of a professional football operation, from picking up dirty socks to signing the pay checks, is the key man behind the Rams year-around, day-by-day functioning.

Steve is in charge of virtually every facet of the business that does not pertain to player personnel. This includes the budget, the various contracts with the Coliseum, the Blair Field (Long Beach) complex, the pre-season schedules, the controller, the public relations department and the ticket department.

In addition to his Rams duties, Steve has found time to involve himself in such community endeavors as serving on the boards of both the Los Angeles Boys Club and the Southern California Visitors Council. Before leaving Baltimore for Los Angeles in 1974, when he joined the Rams organization, Steve was a Director of the Maryland Chapter of the National Cystic Fibrosis Research Foundation.

Before coming west, Steve was President of the Baltimore Colts from March, 1971, until July, 1972, when his father, Carroll Rosenbloom, traded that franchise for the Rams. Following the swap, Steve remained in Baltimore for a year to assure a smooth transition. Following his move to Los Angeles, Steve spent a season assessing the team before assuming the title of Assistant to the President in the spring of 1974.

Steve obtained a degree in business management at Georgetown University in 1967 and immediately joined the Colts on a full-time basis. He had prepared for this move by working closely during his collegiate days with the late Don Kellett, then Colts general manager.

Few football executives boast of Steve's training and background. At age 12 he was assistant equipment manager of Baltimore during training camp and weekends. At age 17 he joined the club's public relations office at training camp.

As a full-time employee, Steve was first the Business Manager where responsibilities also included road trip arrangements. Two years later, 1969, he became Assistant to the President where he worked with the player personnel, signing players and scouting.

Baltimore climaxed its 1970 campaign with a 16-13 Super Bowl victory over Dallas and two months later Carroll Rosenbloom elevated Steve to the club's presidency.

Steve, born November 23, 1944, in Atlantic City, N.J., his wife, the former Renee Bauchat, and their two-year-old son, James Carroll, reside at Rolling Hills Estates.

JACK TEELE, Administrative Assistant

Jack Teele enters his 18th season as a Rams staff member in 1977. The onetime newspaper columnist (Long Beach Independent & Press-Telegram) became Public Relations Director in 1960 and soon demonstrated the administrative ability and innovative talent which brought him respect throughout the National Football League.

Teele became the trusted right hand man to the previous club owner, the late Dan Reeves, when he was named Assistant to the President in March, 1969. Reeves died in April, 1971. When Carroll Rosenbloom took over in July, 1972, he made Teele Administrative Assistant.

In this capacity Teele works closely with both Carroll and Steve Rosenbloom and general manager Don Klosterman. Teele's duties are many and include managing the training camp and supervising the club's Long Beach complex, which includes the coaches' offices and practice facilities. He also handles all the club's travel and practice arrangements.

Teele, born June 17, 1930, at Bloomington, Ill., is another transplanted Californian. He graduated from Long Beach Polytechnic High School, Long Beach City College and Long Beach State. He participated in basketball and golf in high school and was a guard on State's first-ever basketball team in 1951-52.

Teele was a full-time employee in the sports department of the Independent & Press-Telegram while attending school (1949-52) until he joined the Army. Following two years with the Counter Intelligence Corps in Japan he returned to the newspaper in 1954 as a sports writer and columnist.

Teele covered the Rams for his paper for three years, starting in 1957, before joining the club.

Named to the Long Beach City College Hall of Fame in 1976, Teele in 1971 was also tabbed as Long Beach State's Outstanding Alumnus. For the past six years he has served as chairman of the Dan Towler Scholarship Fund Committee. The Towler Fund provides aid for black ministerial students.

Jack, wife Marilyn, and daughters Dana, 21, and Lisa, 19, reside at Long Beach.

Rams Coaching Staff

CHUCK KNOX, Head Coach

Batting four for four is pretty good in any league. In the case of Chuck Knox it signifies a little more than just a good day at home plate. What that phrase represents is the number of division titles that his teams have won. In fact, his four NFC Western Championships in as many years is so enviable that it marks the first time in NFL history that it has happened.

But things don't just happen with Chuck Knox-coached teams. The former New York Jets and Detroit Lions assistant tries to leave nothing to chance, and the result has been a four-year record of 44-11-1 and a winning percentage of .795, best among all active NFL coaches. In addition, he has led the Rams into the NFC title game in each of the last three seasons.

Perhaps his most noteworthy achievement came in his very first year, 1973, when he took over a team that finished 6-7-1 the season before and guided them to a 12-2 record. He won all the "coach of the year" honors for his '73 accomplishments, and since that time his Rams have finished 10-4, 12-2 and 10-3-1 to average 11 victories a season.

While Knox may have received the most recognition for that first season, the recent 1976 campaign could very well have been his best coaching job. Saddled with no less than five injuries to his three quarterbacks, Knox juggled his signal callers and came up with another division title.

And in 1975, Knox's Rams won 12 games and made it to the playoffs, despite losing a total of nine starters, including the quarterback, with injuries for one or more contests.

In fact, what says considerable about the coaching talent of Knox and his staff is that in the last four years the Rams have entered the playoffs with four different quarterbacks: John Hadl in 1973, James Harris in 1974, Ron Jaworski in 1975 and Pat Haden in 1976.

In addition to these accomplishments the serious Scotch-Irishman from Sewickley, Pa. has been the head coach of the NFC Pro Bowl team following each of the last three years, and he has recorded a 2-1 record in that post-season classic.

The NFL "coach of the year" awards he received following his first season were a fitting tribute to the man who thrives on hard work and enthusiasm, two traits he has exhibited during his more than two decades of coaching football at all levels, including 13 years in the pros, five in college and four in the high school ranks.

Knox's professional football coaching preparation was extensive. He was the highly regarded offensive line coach of the Detroit Lions for six years, joining the club in 1976 when Joe Schmidt was named head coach. Prior to that Chuck served four seasons in the American Football League as offensive line coach of the New York Jets. He was a member of Weeb Ewbank's first Jets staff in 1963 and remained there through 1966 when he moved to the Motor City.

In both New York and Detroit, the 44-year old Knox was credited with improving and developing two outstanding offensive lines.

The son of an Irish steel worker, Knox was born April 27, 1932 in Sewickley, Pa. He attended little Juniata College in Huntingdon, Pa., where he was an offensive lineman and co-captain. A three-year letter winner (1950-53), Knox graduated in 1954, then spent one season as assistant coach at his alma mater before going into Pennsylvania prep coaching for four years. He was line coach at Tyrone High for one season and head coach for three years at Ellwood City High.

In 1959 Knox climbed another rung on the coaching ladder when he moved to Wake Forest as an assistant for two seasons until he took a similar job at the University of Kentucky in 1961. Chuck remained with the Wildcats for two more years under both Blanton Collier and Charlie Bradshaw. When Ewbank asked him to join his Jets staff in 1963, he moved to New York.

Chuck, who is active in fund raising efforts for the Kidney Foundation, United Way and the Huntington Beach Boys Club, and his wife Shirley have three daughters, Chris, 23; Kathy, 22; and Colleen, 17; and one son, Chuck, 12. They reside in Huntington Harbor.

TOM CATLIN, Linebacker Coach

Since the mid-1960s the Rams defensive unit has been one of the most respected in the NFL, leading the Rams to six division titles and 10 winning seasons in the last 11 years. The one person who was a part of every one of these defenses was linebacker coach Tom Catlin, who in 1977 is in his 12th straight season with the Rams, the longest continuous coaching assignment in the team's history.

During his 12 years with the Rams, Catlin has served three head coaches, including George Allen from 1966 through 1970, Tommy Prothro in 1971 and 1972 and Chuck Knox since '73. Last year the Ram defenders led the NFC in rushing defense and the NFL in interceptions with Catlin's linebackers playing a key part.

Prior to coming to the Rams, the 17-year veteran of pro coaching served under Hank Stram with the old Dallas Texans from 1960 to 1962, then moved with the club to Kansas City from 1963 through 1965.

Born in Ponca City, Okla., Sept. 8, 1931, Catlin was an All-American center and linebacker under Bud Wilkinson at Oklahoma in 1952, the last of his three varsity seasons there.

Drafted by Baltimore in the fourth round following the end of his collegiate career, Catlin was traded to Cleveland where he became a starting linebacker midway in his rookie year. The Browns won the World Championship in 1954 with Catlin, then a second-year pro, calling the defensive signals for the club.

In March of 1955 he went into the Air Force, and later spent his final months as Plebe coach at West Point under the famed Earl "Red" Blaik in 1957.

After his release from the service, he played three more seasons of pro ball — Cleveland (1957-58) and Philadelphia (1959) — before joining the coaching ranks.

Catlin and his wife, Betty, live in Orange, Ca., with their daughter, Kim 18, and son, Tom, 17.

JACK FAULKNER, Special Assistant Coach

Jack Faulkner has coached or scouted football players for 28 years. He now utilizes the knowledge and skills garnered through those seasons to serve head coach Chuck Knox as a "Jack-of-all-trades", so to speak. He does advance game scouting, evaluates professional personnel throughout the league and works with the Rams defense.

Faulkner was named AFL Coach of the Year in 1962 when he led the Denver Broncos to a 7-7 record in his first season as head coach and general manager after the team had gone 4-9-1 the previous year.

Faulkner, born April 4, 1926, at Youngstown, Ohio was a linebacker at Miami of Ohio from 1946 through 1948 after a tour in the Marine Corps (1944-45).

Faulkner coached six years at the University of Cincinnati (1949-54) under Sid Gillman, then accompanied Gillman as defensive backfield coach when they joined the Rams in 1955.

When Gillman left the head coaching position of the Rams for a similar position with the Los Angeles Chargers of the AFL, Faulkner went along. He also coached for Gillman with the San Diego Chargers in 1961 before going to Denver where he remained until midway in the 1964 season.

In 1965, he became defensive backfield coach of the Minnesota Vikings, returning to Los Angeles in 1966 as a scout. He left to join the expansion New Orleans Saints from 1967 through 1970, serving as chief defensive coach for three years and director of player personnel the final year. Faulkner came back to the Rams as a scout in 1971-72 and then joined Knox's staff.

Jack and wife Betty live in Palos Verdes. They have a daughter, Cathy, 25, and a son, Jon, 14.

RAY MALAVASI, Defensive Coordinator

The Rams have been positively stingy in giving up yardage under the tutelege of defensive coordinator Ray Malavasi, who's starting his 23rd year in coaching with experience in the NFL, the Canadian League, colleges and service teams.

The Rams gave up but 1,564 rushing yards in 1976, tops in the NFC and second only to Pittsburgh's 1,457 among the league's 28 teams. And in total defense the Rams were third in the NFC and fourth in the NFL.

Under Malavasi, the Ram defense led the league in total defense (2,951) and in rushing defense (1,270) in 1973 and in scoring defense (181 points) and rushing defense (1,302) in 1974 and in scoring defense in 1975, permitting only 135 points, a club record and the second fewest in NFL history over a 14-game season.

A native of Passaic, N.J., Malavasi came to the Rams in 1973 after two years at Oakland where he coached the linebackers.

Malavasi, born Nov. 8, 1930, began his coaching career in 1953. Although drafted that year by Philadelphia, he decided to become player-coach at Fort Belvoir, Va., where one of his clubs won a service championship.

The ex-army and Mississippi State lineman served as assistant coach at Minnesota (1956-57), Memphis State (1958-60) and Wake Forest (1961). He became personnel director of the Denver Broncos in 1962 and in 1963 became that club's defensive line coach. In 1966 Malavasi was named the Broncos's head coach, replacing Mac Speedie, who resigned just before the season.

Malavasi was defensive coach of Canada's Hamilton Tiger-Cats in 1967 and 1968 before taking the same job with the Buffalo Bills in 1969 and 1970. He joined Oakland in 1971.

A graduate of Clifton, N.J. High, Malavasi and his wife, Mary, have two daughters, Maureen, 19, and Sheila, 15, and three sons; Dennis, 20, Bill, 15, and Bryce, 13. They live in Huntington Beach.

ELIJAH PITTS, Offensive Backfield and Special Teams Coach

Elijah Pitts' contributions to the Rams offense the last four years have been considerable. Not the least of them has been his offensive backfield coaching of Lawrence McCutcheon, who has broken the club rushing mark three times in those four seasons.

Pitts, who also coaches the Ram specialty squads, has been particularly instrumental in the emergence of McCutcheon as one of the top running backs in the NFL. It is not purely coincidental, for Pitts knew a thing or two about carrying the football himself as an 11-year NFL veteran who was a member of two Super Bowl Championship Green Bay Packer teams in 1966 and 1967.

Compiling an enviable pro record during his playing career, Pitts spent 10 of those years with Vince Lombardi's Packers as a running back and return man after being drafted on the 13th round out of Philander Smith College in Little Rock, Ark.

His lifetime statistics include 1,788 rushing yards in 514 attempts, 104 receptions for 1,245 yards, 75 punt returns for 394 yards and 27 kickoff returns for 516 yards. He played in four NFL championship games following the seasons of 1961, 1962, 1964 and 1966, and also in Super Bowl I, although an achilles injury kept him out of the post-season fun in 1967.

Pitts actually played three games with the Rams in 1970. He was traded to the Chicago Bears that season, then to the Rams and to New Orleans. He finished his career back where he started — in Green Bay — in 1971, then retired to become a full-time scout with the Packers until he took the Ram coaching job in 1973.

Born Feb. 3, 1938, at Mayflower, Ark., Pitts and wife Ruth reside in Fountain Valley with their three children, Ronnie, 14; Kimberly, 6; and Anthony, 4.

RAY PROCHASKA, Offensive Coordinator

Ray Prochaska rounds out his third decade of working in football this season. And that comes after three years of playing it as an offensive end at Nebraska. He is nicknamed "Pro" for two reasons — (1) because it's short for his last name (which is pronounced with a silent "c"), and (2) because of the respect in which he's held by his players and fellow coaches.

Prochaska climaxed his collegiate career by playing in the Rose Bowl game in 1941 (when Stanford won, 21-13) and in the College All-Star game. He signed for one season with the Cleveland Rams before beginning 4½ years of Army service.

After being separated with the rank of major, Prochaska spent nine years (1946-54) as a Nebraska assistant before entering pro ball as an assistant to Pop Ivy with the Edmonton Eskimos of the Canadian Football League from 1955 through 1957. Prochaska joined the Chicago Cardinals in 1958 as offensive line coach, a post he held with the club through its move to St. Louis.

George Allen obtained Prochaska in 1966 to coach the Rams' offensive line. When Allen departed for Washington after the 1970 season, Prochaska joined Cleveland for two seasons (1971-72) before returning to Los Angeles in 1973. The success of the Rams running game and the paucity of sacks on Rams quarterbacks in the past four years are largely attributal to Prochaska's teaching techniques.

For the last four years Prochaska has been the Rams' offensive line coach, but this season head coach Chuck Knox has promoted him to offensive coordinator.

Prochaska, born August 9, 1919, at Ulysses, Neb., resides at Seal Beach, Ca., with wife Jo Ann. They have three sons and a daughter: Craig, 30; Mark, 25; Judy, 22, and Scott, 13.

KAY STEPHENSON, Quarterbacks Coach

The youngest coach on the Rams staff at 32, Kay Stephenson became Chuck Knox's quarterbacks coach last May, filling a spot created when offensive coordinator Ken Meyer left to become head coach of the San Francisco 49ers. Stephenson's duties will be to tutor the Ram quarterbacks and to aid Knox, offensive coordinator Ray Prochaska, receivers coach Lionel Taylor and running backs coach Elijah Pitts in the planning of the offensive strategy.

Called "one of the smartest quarterbacks I ever coached" by former Ram, San Diego Charger and Houston Oiler head coach Sid Gillman, Stephenson played for the Chargers back in 1967 when he was signed as a free agent out of Florida.

Traded to Buffalo in '68, Kay performed in 10 games that season, then spent some time in the training camps of Atlanta (1969) and Oakland (1970) before taking his first coaching job as an assistant at Rice in 1971. After a year away from football in 1972, Stephenson was athletic director and football coach at Baker County High in Macclenny, Fla. in '73, then joined Jacksonville of the WFL, as a player in '74 and as offensive coordinator and director of player personnel in '75. He was out of football last year.

Born on Dec. 17, 1944 in DeFuniak Springs, Fla., Stephenson attended high school in Pensacola, then went on to the University of Florida where he understudied Heisman Trophy winner Steve Spurrier.

Stephenson and wife Mary Jac have a 13-year-old daughter, Sheryl.

LIONEL TAYLOR, Receivers Coach

When Leeman Bennett, left the Rams last February to become the head coach of the Atlanta Falcons, Chuck Knox set out to find the best possible replacement for his talented receiving coach. The man he hired, Lionel Taylor, quite obviously has the ability, the experience and the over-all credentials.

Taylor comes to the Rams from the Pittsburgh Steelers where he had coached for seven years and was therefore the senior member on Chuck Noll's staff that put together back-to-back Super Bowl Championship teams in 1974-75. With the Steelers Taylor had built quite a reputation for developing young receivers like Lynn Swann and John Stallworth.

The 41-year-old Taylor's performance as a player, however, was equally impressive. His 10-year pro career began as a member of the Chicago Bears in 1959. When the rival AFL was formed the following year, Taylor went to Denver where he developed into one of the finest receivers in that league's history. Lionel was with the Broncos from 1960 through '66, then finished up his active playing days at Houston in 1967 and 1968.

His 567 receptions is still the fourth best career mark in pro football history. He led the AFL in receiving a record five times and in 1961 became the first pro player to catch 100 passes in a season. He once caught 13 passes in a game to set an AFL mark.

A native of Kansas City, Mo., Taylor was born Aug. 15, 1936. He grew up in Lorado, West Va., then went to college at New Mexico Highlands where he was an All-Frontier Conference flanker.

Lionel and wife Lorencita reside in Rolling Hills with their two daughters, Loretta, 17; and LaVern, 15.

JIM WAGSTAFF, Defensive Backfield Coach

When Jim Wagstaff accepted his first professional job as a defensive backfield coach on Chuck Knox's first Rams staff in 1973, some experts believed that the Los Angeles secondary was not the team's strongest attribute.

Last year the Rams led the NFL in interceptions with 32 and boasted the NFL's leader in that department, second-year man Monte Jackson, with 10. And Wagstaff's secondary is part of a defense which led the NFC in rushing defense.

Wagstaff, an Idaho native, played in both the NFL and AFL before coaching for seven high school and four college seasons.

Wagstaff served as defensive coordinator and linebacker and defensive backfield coach at Boise State since 1969 before joining the Rams.

His pro career ended in 1962, after playing defensive back for both the Chicago Cardinals and Buffalo Bills. Wagstaff returned to Idaho and became head coach at South Fremont High in 1962, head coach at Pocatello High from 1963 through 1965 and head coach at Idaho Falls High from 1966 through 1968.

Wagstaff, born June 12, 1936, at American Falls, Ida., attended high school at that city before entering Idaho State where he was a running back and cornerback from 1954 through 1958.

He was drafted by Detroit, but never played there. He was a Cardinal in 1959 and a Bill in 1960 and 1961.

The Wagstaffs, wife Nancy and daughters, Cary, 20, and Geniel, 19, reside at Huntington Beach, Ca.

Rams Staff

DICK STEINBERG, Director of College Scouting, joined the Rams in June of 1976 after scouting for the New England Patriots since February, 1972. Steinberg, a Philadelphia native (8-9-37), was graduated from Temple in 1960 where he majored in physical education and health and played football. Steinberg was an assistant coach at Philadelphia's Roman Catholic High, 1960-61; head coach at Staunton Military Academy (Va.), 1961-64; assistant coach at Vanderbilt, 1964-67; assistant at Kansas State, 1967-69; briefly a scout for the Dallas Cowboys, 1969; and assistant coach at Southern Mississippi, 1970-72, before joining New England. Steinberg, who is single, served overseas with the Army for two years where he played and coached football and coached boxing.

HARLEY SEWELL, Scout, closed an 11-year National Football League career with the Rams in 1963 after playing a decade with the Detroit Lions. He became a Ram scout the next season. Sewell, an offensive guard who played at 6 ft. 1 in., 230 lbs., a size that would be considered small today, was rated an outstanding competitor. He was Detroit's number one draft choice in 1953 after an exceptional collegiate career at the University of Texas where he was a consensus All-American as a defensive specialist. Sewell played in four Pro Bowl games as a Lion and was a member of two NFL title teams. A native of St. Joseph, Texas (4-18-31), Harley and his wife Jean reside at Arlington, Texas, with their three children, Nathan, Janet and James.

JOHN MATH, Scouting Department, joined the Rams in March, 1977, following ten years as a scout with the Houston Oilers. Math scouts the West Coast for Los Angeles. Born (9-27-30) in San Gabriel, Ca., Math attended Alhambra High and the University of California at Berkeley where he was a defensive back under Pappy Waldorf from 1950 through 1954. Math coached at Glendale (Ca.) College from 1960 through 1963 and at Utah State from 1964 through 1966 before joining the Oilers. He lives in San Juan Capistrano where he resides with wife Maxine and son, John, Jr., 5.

DON CANNING, Controller, joined Rams in 1965 after three years with Ernst & Ernst as Staff Auditor and CPA. Canning was born at Fullerton, Calif. (4-15-40), attending Long Beach's Millikan High, Long Beach City College, and was graduated from UCLA in 1962. Swimming and water polo player at Millikan and LBCC. Member of USMC Reserve, 1962-68. Resides in Glendale with wife Joan, daughters Corinne and Carolyn and son Dennis.

JERRY WILCOX, Public Relations Director, received title in 1969 after starting with Rams as assistant P.R. director in 1966. Wilcox was assistant Director of Athletic News at USC, 1963-66; a Sports Writer with the Santa Ana Register in 1963 and Sports Editor of the Daily Trojan, the USC student newspaper. Wilcox was born at Bremerton, Wash. (10-13-41), played basketball and baseball at Garden Grove (Calif.) High, attended Santa Ana College and was graduated from USC in 1963 with a Journalism degree. Wilcox and wife Carole Janine live in Cypress.

JACK GEYER, Public Relations Director, came to the Rams in 1966 after six years as general manager and executive director of the defunct Los Angeles Blades Hockey team. Geyer, a Los Angeles native (5-20-21) was Public Relations Director of the VIII Olympic Winter Games at Squaw Valley, 1958-60; a Los Angeles Times Sports Writer and columnist, 1946-59; and a Naval Aviator, 1941-46. He attended Hamilton High (L.A.), Santa Monica JC and was graduated from Occidental College (where he lettered in track) in 1947 with majors in speech and English. Geyer has four children, daughter Shannon and sons James, John and Daniel.

DON HEWITT, Equipment Manager, joined Rams in 1967 after holding same post at USC in 1965-66. Coached football at Arcadia High after moving to Southland from Fresno in 1947. Born in Fresno (7-7-23), raised in Oakland, Calif., attended high school in Fresno and college at Fresno State where he played football. Served in Naval Aviation during WWII. Wife Jean and children Robin, Todd and Kathe reside at Seal Beach.

MILAN DUKICH, Film Director, has been with club since 1956. Previously he was self-employed. Nicknamed "Mickey," Dukich was graduated from Washington State in 1951 with an Economics Major. During WWII served three years in Field Artillery. Participated in football and golf at Spokane's Lewis and Clark High and in golf at Washington State. A native of Spokane (4-2-24), Dukich is single. Hobby is radio-controlled model aircraft. He resides in Orange.

GARY TUTHILL, Trainer, was with Coach Chuck Knox at Detroit in 1971-72 where he was the assistant trainer, the same title he held at USC from 1959 to 1971. Tuthill is a Doctor of Chiropractic, having graduated from the College of Chiropractic in Glendale, Calif., in 1966. He attended Idaho State College, where he played football, and Culver City High, where he participated in football and baseball. A native of Glendale (12-17-39), Gary and wife, Charlene Helen, and their two children, Melinda and Craig, live at Garden Grove.

GEORGE MENEFEE, Trainer, has been with the Rams since 1955 when he came west with Coach Sid Gillman from the University of Cincinnati, where he was trainer and tennis coach. Born in Roanoke, Virginia (10-25-16), Menefee attended the University of Cincinnati in 1935-37 and again in 1946-49, earning a degree in Business Administration. Menefee attended Portsmouth (Ohio) High, where he played football and tennis. During WWII he was a Tech Sergeant in the Army Air Corps for four years and served in England. Menefee and wife Mary Lou have five children, Jo Ann, Sally, Johnny, Betsy and Reba, and reside at Granada Hills.

CHUCK BENEDICT, Speakers Bureau, begins 24th year with the Rams, as part-time administrative scout in 1954, then full-time in '57, both in scouting and in public relations. In 1966 he returned to part-time in order to pursue a career in broadcasting as sports director of KLAC radio and KTTV-TV. A former president of the Southern California Sports Broadcasters Assn., Chuck is editor-in-chief of Petersen's Pro Football Annual and a sportscaster for KIEV radio. Born (4-17-19) in Silver Spring, Md., Chuck currently manages the club's speakers bureau and assists the scouting department seasonally. He and wife Fran reside in Glendale. They have four children.

BILL PHILLIPS, Scouting Dept., has been associated with the Rams since 1957 and became a permanent employee in 1970. He was with American Airlines Public Relations Dept., 1958-69, and the P.R. Director of the Mobil Oil Co.'s Economy Run from 1964-69. Phillips was a stage, screen, radio and TV actor for 25 years. Born at Bloomington, Illinois (11-13-18), Phillips participated in football, basketball and track at DeKalb Township (Ill.) High and in basketball at Northwestern University. He, wife Maria and daughter, Anne Marie, live in North Hollywood.

DON JOHNSON, Ticket Dept. Manager, joined the team in 1960 and assumed his present post in 1971. Previously Johnson worked for the Los Angeles Dodger ticket office, 1957-59; as assistant ticket manager for the defunct Hollywood Stars, 1953-56; and for Mel Morrison Crowd Management as a ticket seller, 1948-53. Johnson, who served in the Army Air Corps, 1943-45, attended Davis & Elkins College in West Virginia and USC where he majored in engineering. Born at Gothenburg, Nebraska (2-17-24), he participated in baseball and track at Gothenburg High. Johnson, wife Barbara, daughter Barbara Michele and son Gregory live at Santa Monica.

JERRY MICKELSEN, Ticket Dept., has been with the Rams since 1968. Since 1960 he had been in the employ of the Los Angeles Dodgers, operating in the ticket area. A native of St. Paul, Minnesota (7-6-35) Mickelsen attended University (L.A.) High where he played basketball and football. He also attended Santa Monica City College and UCLA and was a member of the USMC Reserve for eight years. Mickelsen, wife Lora and children Gregory and Kenneth live at Playa Del Rey.

DON NIMS, Ticket Dept., accepted his present position in 1970 after prior employment with Computicket as a box office consultant; California Sports as a box office manager and Crowd Management as a ticket seller. Nims was born at Anderson, Indiana (5-4-29), attended West Greeley (Colo.) High, where he was on the football, basketball and track teams, and both Colorado State College and the University of Nevada (Reno), where he majored in mining. Nims, an Army Ranger, 1951-53, wife Kathleen, daughter Karen and son David live in Chatsworth.

Bertelsen, Jim Running Back Texas
Height: 5-11 Weight: 205 Born: 2-26-50 Sixth Year

PRO: Jim Bertelsen, a transplanted Texan via Hudson, Wisconsin, can take a ball and do it all. In five seasons with Los Angeles, despite being hampered by knee ailments the past two years, Bertelsen has: (1) carried the ball 614 times for 2,466 yds., a 4.01 avg. and 16 TDs; (2) caught 88 passes for 1,014 yds., an 11.5 avg. and 2 TDs; (3) returned 74 punts for 821 yds., an 11.1 avg., and (4) returned six kickoffs for 120 yds., a 20.0 avg. All this, of course, fails to show the countless blocks he threw on behalf of his ball-carrying teammates. Bertelsen is at his best in the clutch. On succeeding Sundays in 1976 he scored a touchdown on his first play, one yard smashes against Minnesota Sept. 19 and the New York Giants Sept. 26. A knee injury forced him into starting slowly in 1974 and in the next-to-last 1975 game at Green Bay he hurt a knee and underwent an operation the next day. In 1976 he did not start as he had previously, but nonetheless was considered a key man in the offense. His top year was 1973 when he rushed for 854 yards and won a Pro Bowl berth. Ye Old Rams named him "Rookie of the Year" in 1972 after a sensational college career during which his coach, Darrell Royal, called him, "the finest football player I have ever coached." Pro Football Weekly and UPI named him to their All-Rookie teams. Bertelsen was a second round choice in 1972.

COLLEGE: In his last year at Texas Bertelsen gained 879 yards on 160 attempts for a 5.5 avg. and seven touchdowns and was named AP and UPI All-Southwest Conference and picked for the Senior Bowl and College All-Star games. In three college years Bertelsen gained 2,510 yards, scored 33 touchdowns and averaged 6.0 yards.

PERSONAL: A native of St. Paul, Minn., Bertelsen attended high school in Hudson, Wis. He and wife Laura help operate a restaurant in Austin, Tex., during the off-season.

Brooks, Larry Defensive Tackle Virginia State (Petersburg)
Height: 6-3 Weight: 255 Born: 6-10-50 Sixth Year

PRO: Some casual fans know Larry Brooks as the only Ram player to wear a number in the 90's, namely "90". Serious fans, including coaches and players, know this strong, determined, quick defensive lineman as one of the best in the NFL. While not as spectacular, perhaps, as some of the freewheeling defensive ends, Brooks is highly effective and in unofficial statistics led his team in 1976 in tackling quarterbacks with 13 solos and three assists. A knee injury and subsequent operation sidelined him the final six games of 1975, but he was ready when the bell rang in 1976 as his knee strengthened. His regular season play (he started all 14 games plus both playoffs) resulted in his first Pro Bowl berth at year's end. Brooks was drafted on the 14th round in 1972 from Virginia State at Petersburg. He earned a starting job midway through his rookie year and there he stayed until injured. He was a ready reserve player during the first six games of his rookie season.

COLLEGE: During his senior year Brooks was named to AP's first team Little All-American. He gained all-conference honors and was named Virginia Small College Lineman of the Year.

PERSONAL: Brooks was a football and track star at Prince George, Va., where he was born and attended high school. He, wife Colleen and seven-year-old son, Larry, Jr., reside in Huntington Beach, Ca. Brooks is employed in the off-season by Union Bank.

Games Played: 1972(8), 1973(14), 1974(13), 1975(8), 1976(14).

Bryant, Cullen Running Back Colorado
Height: 6-1 Weight: 232 Born: 5-20-51 Fifth Year

PRO: The sight of big Cullen Bryant hurtling his 232 pounds downfield from a running start, particularly on kickoff returns, is a frightening experience. Cullen's talent in this area earned him a spot on Pro Football Weekly's All-NFC team and resulted in his leading the NFC (second in the NFL) with 16 returns for an average of 28.7 yards, including a 90-yard touchdown against St. Louis, the third of his career and tieing him with V.T. Smith for the Rams record. The 90-yarder, incidentally, was the NFC's longest in 1976. Cullen's propensity for kick-returning also went for punt returns where he was second in the NFC with 29 for an 11.1 yard average. Besides all that activity the quiet man from the mountain country of Colorado rushed 21 times for 64 yards and two touchdowns and caught two passes for 28 yards, including a 25-yarder. As a ball carrier, he came into his own in 1975 when he was the Rams' second leading rusher, carrying 117 times for 467 yards, a 4.0-yard average. One of the strongest men in football, Bryant was picked on the second round in 1973 on a choice from San Diego. It was the Rams' first selection of that draft. Bryant was a free-safety for most of the 1972 pre-season and substituted for Steve Preece at that spot in the regular schedule. He became a runner in 1974 and in his initial outing against Kansas City in the pre-season netted 117 yards in 11 carries.

COLLEGE: UPI, Coaches and Sporting News accorded Bryant All-American defensive back honors after his senior year at Colorado.

He was All-Big Eight on AP and UPI polls and a performer in the Senior Bowl and College All-Star contests.

PERSONAL: Bryant wed the former Sandra Gail Guillory Sept. 5, 1976. In the off-season Bryant is working towards a Master's Degree in Recreation and Public Administration. In his spare time he aids the Denver Inner City Recreation Programs and the Boulder and Denver YMCA's.

Cappelletti, John Running Back Penn State
Height: 6-1 Weight: 217 Born: 8-9-52 Fourth Year

PRO: The 1976 summer was a productive one for John Cappelletti, whose impressive training camp and pre-season statistics earned him a starting backfield job for the first time in his pro career. Reduced to short yardage duty for most of his first two seasons with the Rams, the former Heisman Trophy winner averaged 4.8 yards per carry in the pre-season and led the club with 17 receptions, then moved into the lineup along side Lawrence McCutcheon and ahead of Jim Bertelsen. It did not take long for Cappelletti to get started. In fact, both Cappelletti and McCutcheon gained more than 100 yards in each of the first two games, marking only the third time in NFL history that the same two backs on the same team accomplished that feat back-to-back. John's best game was in the season's second week when he rushed for 128 yards on 28 carries as the Rams tied Minnesota, 10-10. For the season he finished with 688 yards on 177 trips, a 3.9 average and one touchdown. He also caught 30 passes for 302 yards and one score. This ran his career totals to 280 carries for 1,044 yards, a 3.7 average, seven rushing touchdowns, 36 receptions for 337 yards and one receiving TD. In addition to his running and receiving, Cappelletti's blocking was a factor in McCutcheon's 1,168 yards, a new club rushing record. A first round draft choice in 1974, John that year was voted "rookie of the year" by Ye Old Rams.

COLLEGE: As a Penn State senior and Heisman Trophy Winner Cappelletti was named to every major All-American team, including UPI, AP, Football Writers Association and Coaches Association. In 1973 he ran 286 times for 1,522 yards, a 6.3 average and 17 touchdowns. Versatile, he was a runner as a freshman and as a sophomore a defensive back who returned punts and kickoffs.

PERSONAL: He was born in Philadelphia, Pa., and was a quarterback at Monsignor Bonner High in nearby Upper Darby. Recently married to the former Betty Ann Berry, Cappelletti resides in Huntington Beach, Ca.

Cowlings, Al Defensive End-Tackle USC
Height: 6-5 Weight: 245 Born: 6-16-47 Seventh Year

PRO: Al Cowlings played in the final five games and two playoffs after joining Los Angeles Nov. 14, 1975. Last year the Rams waived him Sept. 7, and Seattle claimed him, but subsequently released him. The one-time USC star was drafted on the first round by Buffalo in 1970. Buffalo traded him to Houston before the 1973 season for the Oilers' 1974 second-round pick. Cowlings played two years at Houston before being waived before the 1975 campaign. He underwent knee surgery in January, 1975, and re-injured the knee in the spring. Houston traded Cowlings to Baltimore before 1975 camps opened, but Baltimore voided the trade upon learning that a rehabilitation program would keep Cowlings from being immediately available. At that time, Houston waived him. Cowlings returned to his Los Angeles home and when Los Angeles lost defensive tackles Larry Brooks and Bill Nelson in the San Francisco game (Nov. 9, 1975), Cowlings was available.

COLLEGE: Cowlings played on outstanding USC teams — 9-1-1 and 10-0-1 in 1968 and '69, respectively. The Sporting News named him defensive end on the College All-America team of 1969. Cowlings attended San Francisco's Galileo High and City College with O.J. Simpson, a USC teammate, and was a 1970 Senior Bowler.

PERSONAL: Cowlings is a native San Franciscan who lives in Los Angeles where he has done volunteer work in drug rehabilitation programs. Al is single.

Games Played: 1970(13), 1971(14), 1972(14), 1973(14), 1974(14), 1975(5), 1976(0).

Davis, Brad Running Back LSU
Height: 5-11 Weight: 215 Born: 2-9-53 Second Year

PRO: Brad Davis was signed as a free agent prior to the 1977 season after being released by Atlanta, which had selected him on the ninth round in 1975. He played three games that year and one in 1976. He underwent knee surgery following the third game in 1975 and missed the rest of the season.

COLLEGE: Davis is the all-time leading ground gainer in LSU history. His 2,165 yards gained displaced the mark of former Heisman Trophy winner Billy Cannon. He played in the East-West, Hula Bowl and Senior Bowls following his senior year.

PERSONAL: Davis was born at Hammond, La., where he attended Hammond High. Davis, who holds a B.A. degree in microbiology, makes his off-season residence in Baton Rouge, La. where he works for the Lamo Refractory Co. He's single.

Games Played: 1975(3).

Dempsey, Tom Place Kicker Palomar (Ca.) JC
Height: 6-1 Weight: 255 Born: 1-12-47 Ninth Year

PRO: Tom Dempsey's lifetime field goal percentage is a healthy .613, a fine record for practically anyone. But what makes the mark even more impressive is the fact that on many of his field goal tries he was asked to kick from more than 40 yards away. This confidence in Dempsey is due to the many distance records he holds, the most impressive of which came in 1970 when he booted a 63-yarder while playing for New Orleans against Detroit to set an NFL standard that still exists. Tom also holds the Philadelphia Eagles distance mark of 54 yards and shares the Ram record of 51 yards. In his two years with the Rams Dempsey has provided the winning margin for the Rams in two games, winning the 1975 Charger game in overtime, 13-10, and helping the Rams to a 31-28 triumph over Miami last year with a 19-yard field goal in the waning moments. The best percentage kicker in the NFC in 1975 with an .808 accuracy mark, he was fourth last year. He was also fifth in scoring with 87 points on 36 of 44 PATs and 17 of 26 field goals. His career totals are now 200 of 222 PATs, 144 of 235 FGs and 632 points. Tom has been with four clubs during his NFL career. He spent two seasons with the Saints, who had signed him as a free agent after he played with Lowell of the Atlantic Coast Football League in 1967 and was a member of the Chargers' ready reserve squad in '68. Following Dempsey's release from New Orleans, he spent four seasons with the Eagles before coming to the Rams in an off-season trade for a draft choice prior to 1975. Tom, who played in the Pro Bowl following the 1969 season, has kicked 12 field goals of 50 yards or more.

COLLEGE: Despite being born with a withered arm and foot, Tom was an All-Pacific Southwestern Conference defensive end at Palomar JC. He did not attend a four-year school.

PERSONAL: Born in Milwaukee, Dempsey grew up in Encinitas, Ca., and attended San Dieguito High. He and wife Carlene reside in Kenner, La. with sons Toby, 5, and Ashley, 2. Tom is sports director and announcer for WSHO Radio, a country and western music station in New Orleans.

Dryer, Fred Defensive End San Diego State
Height: 6-6 Weight: 230 Born: 7-6-46 Ninth Year

PRO: In 1973-74-75 Fred Dryer had excellent seasons, each highlighted by plays or performances bordering on the spectacular: 1973, Dryer tackled Green Bay passers in the end zone twice for safeties to set NFL record; 1974, Dryer led the defenders with 14 individual sacks plus two assists; 1975, Dryer grabbed a pass from Philadelphia QB Roman Gabriel and ran to a touchdown. In 1976, Fred may have paid the price for his glory years, for he was a marked man of opposing offenses. Even so, he had a fine year. Although he was credited with but five sacks (low for him), he excelled against the run. Fred was one of the key reasons why the Rams led the NFC in rushing defense, giving up but 1,564 yards. The Rams also held the opposition to the lowest average per rush (3.6 yards). Dryer was a Pro Bowler in 1970 and 1975 and Ye Old Rams named him "Outstanding Defensive Lineman" in 1973. In 1975 Pro Football Weekly selected him to its All-NFC team. Dryer came to Los Angeles in 1972 after playing for the New York Giants the three previous years. After playing out his option in 1971, Dryer was traded on draft day to New England for a first, second and sixth draft choices. The Patriots swapped him to the Rams two months later for a first draft choice and defensive lineman Rick Cash. A first round pick by the Giants in 1969, Dryer spent his first Ram year sharing left end with Jack Youngblood.
COLLEGE: Dryer was a junior college All-American at El Camino before attending San Diego State where he earned All-American acclaim his senior year and played in the East-West and Hula Bowl.
PERSONAL: John Frederick (Fred) Dryer was born in Hawthorne, Ca., and resides in Long Beach. Still a Bachelor, he attended Lawndale High. Once described as a "free spirit," Dryer is presently a man of responsibility who is developing a 10,000 square foot sports complex in El Toro.

Ekern, Carl Linebacker San Jose State
Height: 6-3 Weight: 220 Born: 5-27-54 Second Year

PRO: Carl Ekern, one of ten rookies who played for Los Angeles in 1976, saw action in every game, first as a member of all the special teams and, second, as a linebacker in various situations. Ekern, described by linebacker coach Tom Catlin as a player with "good potential," was fortunate to gain a large amount of playing time in the pre-season. Although he was primarily a middle linebacker — a position where the Rams were fortified with veterans Jack Reynolds and Jim Youngblood — he impressed the coaches enough that he made the squad.

COLLEGE: Ekern was named All-PCAA and as a San Jose State junior he was the team's "outstanding defensive player." He played in the East-West Shrine game and drew praise from the scouts for his football instincts. He lettered all four years of college.

PERSONAL: Ekern was born at Richland, Wash., and resides at Sunnyvale, Ca. In the off-season he's finishing requirements at San Jose State for a B.S. in Business Administration. Carl is single.

Games Played: 1976(14).

Elmendorf, Dave Safety Texas A&M
Height: 6-1 Weight: 195 Born: 6-20-49 Seventh Year

PRO: The 1976 Rams secondary was one of the most effective units in the NFL, as is evidenced by its 32 pass interceptions, tops in both conferences. The two young cornerbacks, Monte Jackson and Rod Perry, contributed most of those interceptions, but perhaps the player who deserves as much credit as anyone is strong safety Dave Elmendorf. Elmendorf is the veteran of the group, the one who provides the leadership, the knowhow and the guidance. After six seasons, Dave has also picked off a total of 19 interceptions, seventh on the club's all-time list, for 311 yards and two touchdowns. Two of those came last year, giving him 13 for the last three campaigns. Given honorable mention on its all-conference team by UPI, Elmendorf contributed a key interception late in the Dallas playoff game to help the Rams to a 14-12 victory. He has been receiving all-star recognition throughout most of his NFL career, including second team All-NFL by AP and NEA in 1975 and first team All-NFC from AP and the Pro Football Writers Association following the 1974 season when he shared the conference lead in interceptions with seven. A free safety his first year when he was on the UPI All-Rookie team, Elmendorf was switched to strong safety the following year, and he has twice won Ye Old Rams' "outstanding defensive back" award. He has also returned 57 punts in his career for 502 yards and an 8.8 average.

COLLEGE: An excellent all-around athlete, Elmendorf made both AP and Coaches' All-American in his final season at Texas A&M after turning down a pro baseball bonus offer from the Boston Red Sox. He was also one of 13 National Football Foundation Scholar-Athletes with a 3.84 average out of a possible 4.0.

PERSONAL: Born in San Antonio, Tex., Elmendorf attended Westbury

High in Houston. He resides in Santa Monica, Ca. and Dave spends the off-season working as a business development executive for BankAmericard.

Fanning, Mike Defensive Tackle Notre Dame
Height: 6-6 Weight: 260 Born: 2-2-53 Third Year

PRO: With the retirement of veteran Merlin Olsen, both Mike Fanning and Cody Jones, another third year man, will be given an opportunity to gain a defensive starter position. Fanning, the Rams' number one selection in the 1975 draft, broke two bones in his ankle during a pre-season loss Aug. 23, 1975, his rookie year. The Rams decided to leave him on the active roster instead of injured reserve and Fanning returned in time to play in the final eight regular season games and two playoffs. Last year he played in every game and was credited with four sacks. Fanning was a wrestler at Notre Dame and won 18 straight matches before losing in the 1974 NCAA finals. His mat experience has proved helpful in pro competition, according to defensive coordinator Ray Malavasi.

COLLEGE: Mike Fanning's senior year was capped by being named first team All-American by The Sporting News, Time Magazine, NEA and the Walter Camp Foundation plus second team by the Associated Press. At South Bend he played both tackle and end defensively.

PERSONAL: At Tulsa's Edison High Mike Fanning was an All-State footballer. He's a native of Mt. Clemens, Mich., who makes his off-season home at Tulsa where he keeps in shape at the Tulsa Athletic Club. He's single.

France, Doug Tackle Ohio State
Height: 6-5 Weight: 260 Born 4-26-53 Third Year

PRO: Equipped with three first round choices for the 1975 collegiate draft, the Rams set out to rebuild their aging offensive line. With two of those picks the Rams selected a couple of big, agile blockers named Dennis Harrah and Doug France, both of whom would become starters two years later. France, a one-time tight end at Ohio State, moved in for 15-year veteran Charlie Cowan when the latter retired prior to the 1976 season. With Big Doug playing all 14 games at left tackle, the Rams rolled up 180.6 rushing yards per game, tops in the NFC, on their way to their fourth straight NFC Western Division title. As an understudy in his rookie year, France started a couple of games late in the year when Cowan was sidelined with an injury.
COLLEGE: A member of Ohio State's Big Ten championship of 1974, France played three seasons for the Buckeyes. As a senior, he was honorable mention All-American tight end by Time Magazine, second team from NEA and first team All-Big Ten by AP.
PERSONAL: Born in Dayton, Ohio, France attended Colonial White High in that city where he was an outstanding wrestler, played on the basketball team and captained his football and track teams. He and wife Laura reside in Westminster, Ca. with daughter Kristin Renee, 2. In the off-season Doug worked in the Long Beach School District, helping students to form future goals.

Geredine, Tom Wide Receiver N.E. Missouri State
Height: 6-3 Weight: 190 Born: 6-17-50 Fourth Year

PRO: Tom Geredine was signed as a free agent Sept. 24, 1976, two days prior to the third game against the New York Giants. The move was necessitated when rookie wide receiver Freeman Johns suffered a knee injury the previous game against Minnesota and underwent an operation the following day. Geredine had been selected by Atlanta on the fourth round of the 1973 draft and appeared in 12 games for the Falcons during both the 1973-74 seasons when he returned 10 kicks for an average of 23.9 yards and caught 16 passes for an average of 18.8 yards. Atlanta traded the slender speedster to Kansas City July 25, 1975, for quarterback Dave Jaynes. The Chiefs subsequently released Geredine Sept. 3, 1975, and Minnesota signed him as a free agent in 1976, and later waived him. Geredine was used primarily to return kickoffs for

Los Angeles. He carried back nine for a 20.1 average, including a long of 27. He caught but one pass, a 26-yarder, but that was good for a touchdown against Seattle. Geredine saw action in 10 games.

COLLEGE: At N.E. Missouri State, Tom Geredine was All Conference for three years. He set a school career record with 115 receptions and 2,095 yards. He earned four track letters and recorded a 25 ft. 6 in. long jump and a 52 ft. 3 in. triple jump. He was invited to the Blue-Gray game in 1972.

PERSONAL: Geredine, a native of St. Louis, Mo., attended Central High in Kansas City, Mo., where he competed in football and track. He and his wife, Rosaline Ann Geredine, make their off-season home at Kansas City where Tom coaches both boys and girls track at his high school alma mater.

Haden, Pat Quarterback USC
Height: 5-11 Weight: 182 Born: 1-23-53 Second Year

PRO: He figured to ride the bench as an understudy to veteran quarterbacks James Harris and Ron Jaworski, but by the time the Ram season was over rookie Pat Haden had won the starting job, and that fact was not a major surprise to anyone who had followed his brilliant collegiate career at nearby USC. Injuries to Harris and Jaworski played a critical role in Haden's breaking into the lineup early in the campaign and his performances were impressive enough, both as a starter and in relief, so that the Rams called on him in mid-November to guide them through the final five games of the regular season and into the playoffs. Haden's bid to become the first rookie quarterback ever in the Super Bowl was halted in Minnesota where the Rams lost the NFC Championship Game to the Vikings, 24-13. It was on that same field at Bloomington that Haden got his first NFL start. With Harris and Jaworski both injured in the seaon's second week, Haden, who had converted his first NFL pass into a 47-yard touchdown a week earlier at Atlanta, helped the Rams gain a 10-10 overtime tie with the tough Vikings. He also started later against Chicago, but was forced to leave the game with a first quarter concussion. Following a couple more appearances in relief, Haden was named the starting quarterback for the final five games. The Rams won four of those, although Haden injured a knee in the regular season finale at Detroit as Harris came on to engineer that victory. Haden was able to start the next week against Dallas in the first round of the playoffs as the Rams won that one, 14-12, prior to the loss to Minnesota. Haden's pass rating for the season was 94.7, good enough to lead the NFC except that he fell 35 short of the required 140 minimum attempts. His figures included 60 completions in 105 attempts for 896 yards, eight touchdowns and four interceptions. He also rushed 25 times for 84 yards and four TDs. Pat's best yardage passing day came against Atlanta when he completed 13 of 21 for 214 yards. A seventh round draft choice of the Rams in 1975, Haden played that season for the Southern California Sun of the World Football League. He was leading that league in passing after 10 games when he departed for Oxford and his off-season studies as a Rhodes Scholar. Last year he was named "rookie of the year" by Ye Old Rams.

COLLEGE: Haden played in the Trojans' three consecutive Rose Bowl appearances including the 18-17 thriller over Ohio State in the 1975 game. He is USC's all-time leading touchdown passer with 33, including 13 in each of his last two years. He either holds or shares seven USC passing records. Pat's USC totals included 241 completions in 468 attempts for 3,288 yards. He was Academic All-American and played in the Hula Bowl following his senior year.

PERSONAL: Born Jan. 23, 1953 in Westbury, N.Y., Patrick Capper Haden grew up in West Covina, Ca. and attended Bishop Amat High, where he set numerous prep passing records. A Rhodes Scholar, he spends the off-season studying philosophy, economics and politics at Oxford. He and wife Cindy reside in Los Angeles.

Harrah, Dennis Guard Miami (Fla.)
Height: 6-5 Weight: 257 Born: 3-9-53 Third Year

PRO: Dennis Harrah was the second of three Ram first round choices in 1975 and it did not take him long to vindicate the judgement of the selectors. Harrah became a starter last year at right guard, taking over for retired veteran Joe Scibelli. Harrah's run-blocking helped the Rams lead the NFC in rushing by averaging 180.6 yards per game on the ground. He played every game in 1975, too, when he subbed for either guard and handled special team duties. Harrah possesses excellent weight techniques and is powerfully built at 257 pounds over a 6-5 frame. His teammates call him "Herk," short for Hercules. Harrah is versatile, too, a trait he displayed in his rookie year when circumstances dictated his appearance at tight end in blocking situations.
COLLEGE: The Sporting News and Time Magazine named Harrah All-American and the AP voted him second team following his college career. He played in both the Hula and Senior Bowl games.
PERSONAL: Harrah, who is single, was born in Charleston, W. Va., attended the city's Stonewall Jackson High and still makes his off-season home there. He was a footballer and wrestler in prep school. In the off-season he is continuing his studies for a degree at Miami (Fla.).

Games Played: 1976(14).

Horton, Greg Guard Colorado
Height: 6-4 Weight: 245 Born: 1-7-51 Second Year

PRO: Greg Horton, a California native who attended Colorado, played in 14 games last year after spending his first two pro seasons recovering from knee injuries. Horton was drafted on the third round by Chicago in 1974 and traded to Los Angeles for two 1975 draft choices. Knee surgery sidelined him in 1975 after the coaches had cited his great improvement in pre-season play. In addition to offensive line duties (he played both guard and tackle at Colorado), Horton was a special teams regular.

COLLEGE: Horton was selected All-Big Eight as a senior. He played in the East-West Shrine Game and Senior Bowl.

PERSONAL: Horton, a native of San Bernardino, Ca., attended Redlands High, Ca. He's single and makes his off-season home at Boulder, Colo., where he purchased a house after the '76 campaign.

Games Played: 1976(14).

Jackson, Harold Wide Receiver Jackson State
Height: 5-10 Weight: 175 Born: 1-6-46 Tenth Year

PRO: Harold Jackson was drafted on the 12th round by Los Angeles in 1968, a year in which he spent most of his time on the ready reserve list. Subsequently he and defensive end John Zook were traded to Philadelphia before 1969 for running back Israel Lang. After four years in Philadelphia, where he caught 215 passes, Harold returned to his original team and since then has led the club in receptions each of his four years. Last year he caught 39. His consistency is evidenced by the statistics — 43 catches in 1975, 30 in '74 and 40 in '73. Jackson returned home, so to speak, in a trade prior to the '73 season which sent QB Roman Gabriel to Philadelphia. Los Angeles also received running back Tony Baker, first draft choices in '74 (John Cappelletti) and '75 (Dennis Harrah) plus a third in '75 (Dan Nugent). Jackson led the NFL in receiving yards in both 1969 and 1972. His nine year totals are 367 catches for 6,418 yards, a nifty 17.5 average per catch and 51 touchdowns, 30 of them in Ram livery. Jackson played in the Pro Bowl after the 1969, 1972, 1973 and 1975 seasons and last year was named second team All-NFC by UPI. In 1973, a year the Ye Old Rams named him "Outstanding Receiver" and the major polls tabbed him All-NFL and All-NFC, he tied a club record for TD receptions when he caught four for 63,16,67 and 36 yards from John Hadl in a win over Dallas, 37-31. Last year he had particularly outstanding days against Miami (4 for 99), St. Louis (4 for 107 and one touchdown) and in the Dallas playoff game (6 for 116).

COLLEGE: Jackson set a Jackson State pass catching record his senior year when he was an All-Southwest Athletic Conference end. He was a 9.5 sprinter.

PERSONAL: The personable Jackson attended Ronon High in the city of his birth, Hattiesburg, Miss., where he still resides. A bachelor, Jackson spends the off-season giving clinics for the city's youth and managing a Little League baseball team.

Jackson, Monte Cornerback San Diego State
Height: 5-11 Weight: 189 Born: 7-14-53 Third Year

PRO: It hasn't really taken all that long for Monte Jackson to adjust to the NFL. In fact, it just may take the NFL a lot longer to adjust to Monte Jackson. In just two short years, the former San Diego State star has blossomed into one of the premiere cornerbacks in the league. To prove it, he led the league last year with 10 interceptions, returned them 173 yards and for three touchdowns, also an NFL high. These accomplishments brought him All-Pro acclaim from everyone. AP, NEA, the Pro Football Writers Association and Pro Football Weekly named him All-NFL while the UPI, AP, Pro Football Weekly, and The Sporting News tabbed Jackson All-NFC. The National Conference coaches named the versatile athlete to the Pro Bowl team for the first time while Ye Old Rams honored him as the club's "outstanding defensive back" and The Citizens Savings Athletic Foundation called him the Southern California Athlete of the Month for December. On a team that led the NFL in interceptions, Jackson got off to a fast start, picking off two in the season opener at Atlanta and returning one for a 46-yard touchdown. Later he intercepted three against Chicago and two more against the 49ers. In addition to his 10 regular season interceptions, Jackson also snared one in each of the Rams' two playoff games. As a second round draft choice in 1975, Jackson began that season as a reserve corner, but became a starter after the fourth week because of an injury to veteran Al Clark. Monte went on to intercept two passes that season, win "rookie of the year" honors from Ye Old Rams and be named to the All-Rookie team by UPI.

COLLEGE: In his two years at San Diego State, Jackson intercepted nine passes, returning them for a school record 224 yards. He had six his senior season after which he participated in the East-West Shrine and Blue-Gray games. A transfer from San Diego Mesa JC, Jackson was All-Pacific Coast Athletic Association and a second team selection on AP's All-Coast squad.

PERSONAL: Jackson was born in Sherman, Tex. and attended St. Augustine High in San Diego where he participated in football and basketball. He and wife Ricarda reside in Huntington Beach, Ca., and Monte attends Cal State Long Beach during the off-season.

Jackson, Rusty Punter Louisiana State
Height: 6-2 Weight: 190 Born: 11-17-50 Second Year

PRO: As a rookie in 1976, Rusty Jackson became the Rams sixth regular punter since 1965. He punted 77 times for 3006 yards, a 39.0 average and good enough to be picked on the Pro Football Writers Association All-Rookie team. He accounted for 6 touchbacks and eased 16 punts out of bounds inside the 20-yd. line. Jackson was the sixth best punter in the NFC but his net average of 33.0 (subtracting yards returned and touckback yardage) was fourth highest in the NFC. Jackson had two punts blocked in the regular season, one by Chicago's John Musso and another by St. Louis' Al Beauchamp. Dallas' Charlie Waters blocked two in the playoff game (one when the snap from center bounced en route to Jackson) and Minnesota's Matt Blair blocked another in the NFC championship game. Jackson was in the World Football League in 1975 when he punted 54 times for an average of 41.2 and a long of 63 while playing for Birmingham. He was with Memphis in the pre-season.

COLLEGE: Jackson lettered three years at LSU where he place-kicked as well as punted. He was selected to All-Southeastern Conference freshman and sophomore teams.

PERSONAL: Born in Tuscaloosa, Ala., Rusty attended Chatom High at Chatom, Ala., where he competed in football, basketball and baseball. In the off-season he serves as a consultant forester for Woodmarketing Inc. in Mobile, Ala., where he, wife Katherine Ann and son, Loren, 5, reside.

Jessie, Ron Wide Receiver Kansas
Height: 6-0 Weight: 185 Born: 2-4-48 Seventh Year

PRO: You must count your way down to the 22nd leading receiver in the NFC (and then it's a tie) to locate Ron Jessie, but don't let the statistics fool you. Although he had "only" 34 receptions, Jessie's average per catch was the best in the conference — 22.9 yards. In addition, Jessie was almost sure to make at least one unbelieveable catch a game, sometimes two. Just as nobody had a better average, nobody could touch him in acrobatic receptions. His most spectacular day came in a 31-28 victory over Miami when he caught 7 passes for 220 yds. (third highest in Ram history), a 31.4 avg., plus two touchdowns. His catches were for 26,24,26,58 TD, 43 TD, 17 and 26. In other games Jessie had longs of 47 TD vs. Atlanta; 25 vs. Minnesota; 42 vs. Chicago; 37 vs. New Orleans; 21 and 15 TD vs. Seattle; 49 TD vs. San Francisco and 53 vs.

Atlanta. Jessie capped his '76 season with his first appearance in the Pro Bowl. He was also named the club's "outstanding receiver" for the second year in a row. In 1975 his biggest day was against Atlanta when he grabbed 10 for 151 yards and a touchdown in a 16-7 Los Angeles win. His previous personal high was also 10, achieved with Detroit against Minnesota in 1974, the same year he caught 54 for 761 yards and sixth place in the NFL. Dallas drafted Jessie on the eighth round in 1971 and traded him to Detroit prior to that season for a draft choice. He performed four seasons with the Lions before playing out his option and signing with the Rams in 1975. As a rookie Ron returned 47 kickoffs for 1,237 yards and two touchdowns.

COLLEGE: After attending Imperial Valley JC in El Centro, Ca., Ron Jessie transferred to Kansas where he was primarily a running back although he did catch 33 passes in two seasons for 644 yards. He long-jumped 26-4¼ and won an NCAA Indoor title in 1969. He high jumped 6-8 and ran the high hurdles in 13.8.

PERSONAL: Jessie was born and attended high school in Yuma, Ariz. He and wife Sharon and sons Ron, 5, and Brandon, 3, reside in Huntington Beach, Ca. Jessie is employed in the off-season in the U.S. Commerce Dept.'s Business Management Fellowship Program.

Jones, Cody Defensive End-Tackle San Jose State
Height: 6-5 Weight: 240 Born: 5-3-51 Fourth Year

PRO: Cody Jones has been learning his trade the difficult way. He was a fifth round draft choice in 1973, a year he spent on the ready reserve squad. Jones played 12 games in 1974 and all 14 in both 1975-76. Valuable experience came Jones' way in '75 when knee injuries sidelined starter Larry Brooks and his sub, Bill Nelson, in the same game. Cody proceeded to start the remaining six league games, plus the two playoffs. Cody plays on some special teams and can perform at either end or tackle, and will battle Mike Fanning for Merlin Olsen's defensive left tackle spot in 1977.
COLLEGE: Before transferring to San Jose State, Jones played at Trinidad State JC (Colo.) where he was an all-conference defensive tackle. He also played basketball. Following his senior year he participated in the East-West Shrine game.
PERSONAL: Cody attended Mission High at San Francisco, his birthplace. He is continuing his studies in the off-season at Long Beach State, majoring in physical education. He also plays for the Ram off-season basketball team. Cody and wife Nina reside at Huntington Beach, Ca.

Games Played: 1974(12), 1975(14), 1976(14).

Kay, Rick Linebacker Colorado
Height: 6-4 Weight: 235 Born: 11-10-49 Fourth Year

PRO: Just when he was beginning to make a name for himself as the Rams' starting left linebacker, misfortune befell Rick Kay early in the 1976 season. Against the New York Giants in the third week of the campaign, Kay suffered a knee injury — the second time in three years — and the resulting surgery left him sidelined for the remainder of the fall. A week earlier, in a big game against the Minnesota Vikings, it was Kay's last minute interception of a Fran Tarkenton pass deep in Ram territory that helped preserve a 10-10 overtime tie. When he has not been injured Kay has demonstrated the same versatility that he did as a collegian at Colorado. Signed as a free agent in 1973, Kay was a valuable special teamer that year, but a pre-season knee injury forced him to miss all of '74. In '75 he was a backup linebacker to Ken Geddes as well as filling in as a reserve tight end late in the year when Bob Klein was hurt. With Geddes going to Seattle in the 1976 expansion allocation, Kay was the leading candidate and had won the starting job until the injury.

COLLEGE: A three-year letterman and captain his senior year at Colorado, Kay played a little bit of everything at Boulder. He was a split end, tight end, defensive end and middle guard, but a back injury hindered him during his career there.
PERSONAL: Kay attended Pacific High in San Bernardino, Ca. He lives in Orange with his wife Sandra and their three-year-old son, Eric. A native of Henderson, Nev., Kay spent last off-season as a sales representative for Continental Airlines.

Games Played: 1973(14), 1974(0), 1975(14), 1976(3).

Mack, Tom Guard Michigan
Height: 6-3 Weight: 250 Born: 11-1-43 Twelfth Year

PRO: As a rookie in 1966 Tom Mack moved into a starting berth on the Rams offensive line, and he's been there ever since. At 33, Mack enters his 12th year in 1977 as the squad's oldest lineman. He is also one of the most decorated, having played in the Pro Bowl following nine of his previous 11 seasons and having won numerous All-Pro honors in his career, the most recent being in 1976 when he was named second team All-NFC by UPI. Throughout the last decade, Mack has earned All-NFC and All-NFL honors from such services and publications as AP, The Sporting News, NEA and Pro Football Weekly. At the conclusion of the 1976 season, Mack had performed in 154 consecutive regular season games without missing one. This ranks third on the club's all-time list behind two retired players: Merlin Olsen (198) and Ed Meador (159). The 154 also ranks sixth on the Rams all-time list for total games played. A starter at left guard since midway in his first year, Tom was voted Rookie of the Year that season by Ye Old Rams, the same group that named him the club's "outstanding interior offensive lineman" in 1970 and 1975.
COLLEGE: As a junior Mack was a starter on the 1964 Michigan team which topped Oregon State in the Rose Bowl. In his senior year he was UPI and NEA All-American, as well as All-Big Ten. He was a member of the East-West, Hula Bowl and College All-Star teams.
PERSONAL: Mack, born in Cleveland, Ohio, attended Cleveland Heights High where he played football and baseball and established swimming records. His father, the late Ray Mack, played major league baseball with the Cleveland Indians. Tom, wife Anne and daughters Kristan, 8, Kathryn, 6, and Carolyn, 3, live in San Marino. In the off-season Mack is employed as an engineer by Bechtel Corp. He is also active in such community projects as Boy Scouts and Crippled Children's Foundation.

Games Played: 1966(14), 1967(14), 1968(14), 1969(14), 1970(14), 1971(14), 1972(14), 1973(14), 1974(14), 1975(14), 1976(14).

McCutcheon, Lawrence Running Back Colorado State
Height: 6-1 Weight: 205 Born: 6-2-50 Fifth Year

PRO: Dick Bass played 10 seasons for the Rams and finished his career as the club's all-time rushing leader. Lawrence McCutcheon serves his fifth year in 1977, and if it's anything like the last four he's likely to break Bass' record in just half the time. With 4,285 yards, "Lawrence of Los Angeles" needs only 1,132 as he enters the '77 season to catch Bass' Ram mark of 5,417. It appears as if McCutcheon is just hitting his prime, for he comes off a 1976 year in which he bettered his own club rushing record with a 1,168 performance on a new Ram high of 291 carries for a 4.0 average and nine touchdowns. Only six times in Ram history has a Ram ball carrier gained more than 1,000 yards in a season, and McCutcheon has done it the top three of those, including 1,097 in 1973 and 1,109 and the NFC rushing title in 1974. Along the way he has gained more than 100 yards on 16 occasions in regular season games plus a couple other times in post-season playoffs which don't figure in his career rushing statistics. In fact, his best ever performance came in the 1975 playoffs against the Cardinals when he rushed 37 times for 202 yards. Last year he went over the century mark four times during the regular season and also picked up 128 yards in 26 trips in the NFC Championship loss to the Vikings. With only Bass to catch, McCutcheon has passed such notable Ram rushing leaders of the past as Deacon Dan Towler (3,493), Les Josephson (3,407) and Tank Younger (3,296). For his heroics in '77, McCutcheon was voted into the Pro Bowl for the fourth straight time and also earned the award as the club's "outstanding offensive back" for the fourth consecutive year. He won the NEA's "Third Down" award as the team's MVP and also was named second team All-NFC by UPI. In recent years he has been a first time All-NFL performer as well as a unanimous pick on the all-conference teams selected by the various services and publications. In 1974 he won the Daniel F. Reeves Memorial Award as the club's most valuable player. However, it has not been an easy road for McCutcheon. Leg injuries hampered Lawrence's first training camp after he had been drafted third by the Rams in 1972. He began that year on the reserve squad and was activated at mid-season for three games when he performed on the special teams. The following season was a different story, however, as McCutcheon showed his class immediately by gaining 120 yards in the opener against Kansas City and went on to make UPI's All-Rookie team as well as recognition on several All-NFC and All-NFL teams.

COLLEGE: In his sophomore year at Colorado State, McCutcheon was the WAC's "outstanding back," but ensuing seasons were even more productive. He finished with career totals of 649 carries for 2,917 yards, a 4.5 per carry average and 22 touchdowns. Twice he gained more than one thousand yards in a season; 1,008 in 1970 and 1,112 in '71.

PERSONAL: McCutcheon was born in Plainview, Texas, and went to high school in that city. Still a bachelor, he lives in Los Angeles and spends the off-season playing golf and tennis.

McLain, Kevin Linebacker Colorado State
Height: 6-2 Weight: 227 Born: 9-15-54 Second Year

PRO: Kevin McLain, a first round draft choice in 1976, appeared in all 14 games for Los Angeles, mostly on special teams and in certain yardage situations. He played behind Jim Youngblood at left linebacker, following a college career at middle linebacker. He drew particular praise for his play from special team coach Elijah Pitts. Linebacker coach Tom Catlin also expressed satisfaction with McLain's improvement over the season.

COLLEGE: McLain was tabbed first string All-American by NEA and The Sporting news, second team UPI and honorable mention by AP. At Colorado State he made 138 tackles in his senior year along with two interceptions, returning one 58 yards to score. He was a participant in the College All-Star game following his senior year.
PERSONAL: Kevin was born at Tulsa, Okla. and attended Loara High in Anaheim, Ca., then Fullerton JC. In prep school he participated in track as well as football. He is continuing his studies during the summer at Colorado State. He and his wife, the former Marcee Mercer, live at Ft. Collins, Colo. where Kevin works with the Galaway Rehabilitation Center Branch, United Way.

Height: 5-9 Weight: 172 Born: 4-26-47 Third Year

PRO: Willie Miller was drafted by Houston on the 12th round in 1975 and traded to Cleveland July 15, 1975, for a 1976 12th round choice. Last year Willie played six games with Cleveland, mostly as a return man on punts and kickoffs, before being released. The year before, as a backup wide receiver, he caught seven passes and also threw a 26-yard touchdown pass against Minnesota.
COLLEGE: Because of service in Vietnam, Willie Miller was a late starter at Colorado State where he became the school's all-time receiver and holder of every receiving record. He set an NCAA mark with a 22.5 season average in 1974.
PERSONAL: While in Vietnam with the Army he was awarded the Purple Heart, Silver Star and the Soldier's Medal. Willie was born at Birmingham, Ala., where he still resides. A Colorado State graduate, Willie is a bachelor, working on a Master's degree at CSU.

Namath, Joe Quarterback Alabama
Height: 6-2 Weight: 200 Born: 5-31-43 Thirteenth Year

PRO: Last May 12 the Rams announced they had agreed to terms with free agent Joe Namath, one of the most highly publicized and accomplished quarterbacks in professional football history. The man from Beaver Falls, Pa. had spent a dozen memorable years with the New York Jets, and now moves to the West Coast where he hopes to lead the Rams to a title. "Broadway Joe's" transfer to Los Angeles signals a reunion of sorts, first with head coach Chuck Knox, who, as a Jets assistant in 1965, "recruited" Namath out of Alabama and helped persuade him to sign with the AFL club. Namath will also renew acquaintances with Ram owner Carroll Rosenbloom, who owned the Baltimore Colts in 1969 when Namath completed 17 of 28 passes for 206 yards as the upstart, underdog Jets edged the Colts, 16-7, to give the AFL its first win in Super Bowl III. Namath predicted that victory, and that is why it is long remembered. However, it isn't Namath's only accomplishment by any means. The five-time captain of the Jets is the only player in NFL history ever to pass for more than 4,000 yards in a season when he completed 258 of 491 for 4,007 yards and 26 touchdowns in 1967. His total figures are 3,655 attempts (12th on the all-time list), 1,836 completions (11th all-time) for 27,057 yards (10th) and 170 touchdowns (17th). Despite a career in which he has had four knee operations, Joe has passed for more than 400 yards three times and more than 300 on 21 occasions. His best yardage day was 496, third best in pro football history, on Sept. 24, 1972 against the Colts when he threw for six TDs, then came back the same year to throw for 403 yards against Oakland. A first round draft choice by the Jets and also St. Louis in '65, Namath is a member of the all-time AFL squad selected by the Pro Football Hall of Fame. He was also an All-Pro three times, has been selected to the old AFL All-Star Game three times and the Pro Bowl twice, and following his Super Bowl triumph was named winner of the Hickok Belt, AFL MVP, Super Bowl MVP and the George Halas Award as the Most Courageous Player. Namath who once held an NFL record of 15 straight completions, holds 12 Jets passing records, including most attempts in game (62 vs. Baltimore, 10-18-70), in a season (491 in '67) and in a career (3,655); most completions in a game (34 vs. Baltimore, 10-18-72), in a season (258 in '67) and in a career (1,836); most passing yards in a game (496 vs. Baltimore, 9-24-72), in a season (4,007 in '67) and in a career (27,057); most TD passes in a game (6 vs. Baltimore, 9-24-72), in a season (26 in '67) and in a career (170).

COLLEGE: Called "the greatest athlete I have ever coached" by his Alabama coach, Paul (Bear) Bryant, Namath completed 230 of 428 passes for 3,055 yards, 29 TDs and a 54 per cent completion average in his college career. He completed 64 per cent of his passes as a senior. He guided Alabama to Orange Bowl appearances in 1963 and 1965 when he was the game's MVP, and into the 1964 Sugar Bowl. His college rushing totals were 312 carries for 597 yards and 15 TDs.

PERSONAL: Born in Beaver Falls, Pa., Joe attended high school in that city and has made his off-season home in New York and Florida. He has pursued an acting career, having appeared in three movies: "Norwood," "C.C. and Company" and "The Last Rebel." He has also had his own syndicated TV show and has appeared on numerous variety TV shows.

Nelson, Terry Tight End Arkansas AM&N
Height: 6-2 Weight: 230 Born: 5-20-51 Fourth Year

PRO: Terry Nelson played in all 14 games in 1976, mostly on short yardage situations and special teams. He caught four passes for 48 yards, although most of his working time was spent as a blocker. When starter Bob Klein was sidelined during the Detroit game Thanksgiving Day in 1975, Nelson played full-time the following five games, including two playoffs. In 1974 Nelson saw action in ten games and in 1973 he spent all but one game on the ready reserve.

COLLEGE: Nelson captained the Arkansas AM&N team his senior year when he was named a Pittsburgh Courier All-American. He lettered three years.

PERSONAL: Nelson was born in Arkadelphia, Ark. where he attended Peake High and played football and basketball. Terry and wife, Frances, make their home at Arkadelphia where Terry spends the off-season in youth work.

Perry, Rod Cornerback Colorado
Height: 5-9 Weight: 170 Born: 9-11-53 Third Year

PRO: Rod Perry might possibly have been shunned last year by the wire services and publications which pick the all-pro teams simply because of the company he keeps. In other words Perry's blue-ribbon season was overshadowed by that of his close friend and cornerback teammate, Monte Jackson, who led the NFL with 10 interceptions. The diminutive Perry had eight thefts himself, but the all-pro pickers might have been reluctant to honor two corners from the same team. Perry returned his eight interceptions for 79 yards from his left corner position to rank in a tie for second in the NFC and a tie for third in the NFL. He and Jackson helped spearhead the Rams to the league leadership in interceptions with 32. That he is even on the squad is a tribute to the patience of the Ram coaching staff and the tenacity of Perry, himself. Drafted on the fourth round in 1975, Perry underwent knee surgery that spring and spent the summer rehabilitating himself on the "physically unable to perform" list. Activated following the fifth game when veteran Al Clark was injured, Perry performed as a backup in the secondary and a member of the special teams. One of the quickest and fastest Rams, Perry won the battle for the wide open left corner spot last summer, a position vacated when Eddie McMillan was sent to Seattle in the expansion allocation.

COLLEGE: Rod Perry attended Colorado for two years after spending his freshman and sophomore seasons at Fresno City College where he was a JC All American. Perry has long-jumped 24-6.

PERSONAL: Perry was born at Fresno and attended Fresno's Hoover High. He is single and resides at Fresno during the off-season.

Phillips, Rod Running Back Jackson State
Height: 6-0 Weight: 220 Born: 12-23-52 Third Year

PRO: Rod Phillips was the Rams' third leading rusher in 1976, carrying 34 times for 206 yards, the highest average among the runners at 6.1, and one touchdown. He also caught four passes. Phillips, the only free agent to make the active roster as a rookie in '75, has a career average of 5.4 gained in two years over 51 rushes. In the final league game in 1975 against the defending Super Bowl champion Pittsburgh team, injuries decreed that Rod should start and he rushed 11 times for 51 yards during a 10-3 Ram win, despite suffering a sprained ankle in the second quarter. Although Rod saw action in every '76 game, he was used chiefly on special teams. In 1975 Rod, a tight end on occasion in college, stood by at that position because of injuries.

COLLEGE: After spending his freshman year at Cincinnati, Rod transferred to Jackson State where he played both tight end and running back.

PERSONAL: Phillips played football, basketball and baseball at Harper High in Mendenhall, Miss. He was born at Meridian, Miss. He, wife Brenda and daughter Erin, 1, live at Huntington Beach, Ca. Phillips performs on the Ram basketball team in the off-season.

Reynolds, Jack Linebacker Tennessee
Height: 6-1 Weight: 232 Born: 11-22-47 Eighth Year

PRO: Middle linebacker Jack Reynolds is the Rams' defensive quarterback. Reynolds receives formation signals from defensive coordinator Ray Malavasi and, in turn, relays them. However, such is the faith the coaches have in Reynolds' ability, he is free to change the plans as he sees fit. Reynolds, nicknamed 'Hacksaw', is a key man in a defense which led the NFC in rushing defense, giving up 1,564 yards. It then followed that the Rams gave up the lowest average per rush, 3.6; the lowest average rushing per game, 111.7; and the least rushing attempts, 429. This trend began in 1975 when the Ram defense led the NFL in scoring defense, giving up but 135 points, second lowest in NFL history over a 14-game season. And in 1974 the Rams led the NFL in rushing defense, scoring defense and were second in the NFL in total defense. Reynolds has been described as being one of the team's most dedicated players, as well as one of the most consistent. Reynolds was a first-round draft choice in 1970 when Myron Pottios was the starter. He subbed for Marlin McKeever in 1971-72 and then became the starter in '73, a spot he's held since. He missed much of '71 with a knee ailment.

COLLEGE: Reynolds played in the College All-Star game after being selected on the All-Southeast Conference team.

PERSONAL: Reynolds was born at Cincinnati and attended Western Hills High there. Jack and his wife Pat live at Huntington Beach, Ca.

Robertson, Isiah Linebacker Southern U.
Height: 6-3 Weight: 225 Born: 8-17-49 Seventh Year

PRO: Rams coaches say that 1976 may have been Isiah Robertson's best year as a pro. That's not bad considering his flamboyant play has helped him earn all-star recognition ever since his rookie season. But there was something special about '76. The coaches say he played their "team" concept of defense better than ever before. He may not have been as flashy as he was, say in '75 when he returned an interception 76 yards to a touchdown against Philadelphia, or in the '74 playoffs when his 59-yard open-field return of an interception helped beat Washington, but he was just as effective. That is not to say Robertson was not noticeable. He intercepted four passes to run his six-year career totals to 17 for 246 return yards and two scores — ranking in a tie for eighth on the all-time Ram list. And he added another important interception in the playoff win over Dallas. Once again, Robertson was accorded near-unanimous all-pro recognition. He was first team All-NFL from AP and first team All-NFC from AP, UPI, Pro Football Weekly and The Sporting News. Nicknamed "Butch" by his teammates, Robertson played in the Pro Bowl for the fifth time (also following seasons of 1971, '73, '74 and '75). Isiah was drafted on the first round of the 1971 selection meeting, the tenth player picked that year on a selection obtained from Washington. He was an immediate hit as a rookie as he became a starter and was named "rookie of the year" by Ye Old Rams, the NFL defensive "rookie of the year" by both AP and Pro Football Weekly and won a berth on UPI's All-Rookie team. He has been a familiar name on all-pro and all-conference teams ever since.

COLLEGE: Robertson intercepted 11 passes in three years at Southern U. and in his senior year was named All-America by the Sporting News and Time Magazine, as well as Small College All-American by AP and UPI.

He is active in many enterprises, including shirt-manufacturing. He also works as a special assistant to Orange County Supervisor Phil Anthony. Robertson spends considerable time helping youth groups and charities such as United Way and United Cerebral Palsy.

Rogers, Mel Linebacker Florida A&M
Height: 6-2 Weight: 230 Born: 4-23-47 Fifth Year

PRO: Mel Rogers was a free agent twice with the Rams last year, and the second time he made it stick. Signed in the off-season, Rogers came to camp, but failed to make the club. A month later, however, the Rams went looking for Rogers when linebacker Rick Kay went down for the year with a knee injury, and Mel became a backup at outside linebacker for the last 11 games. He spent 1975 with Philadelphia of the World Football League. Mel played with the Bridgeport Jets of the Atlantic Coast Football League in 1970 and was signed as a free agent by San Diego in 1971. He was released in 1974 and signed as a free agent by Washington in 1975 before joining the Philadelphia Bell. A shoulder injury sidelined him the entire 1972 season.

COLLEGE: Mel Rogers was all Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Conference in his senior Florida A&M season.

PERSONAL: Rogers, born at St. Petersburg, Fla., attended Gibbs High in that city where he competed in football and basketball. In the off-season he teaches for the Pinellas County School Board. He and wife Betty live at St. Petersburg.

Saul, Rich Center Michigan State
Height: 6-3 Weight: 250 Born: 2-5-48 Eighth Year

PRO: It may have taken Rich Saul six years to become the Rams' starting center, but after he got the job, he required only two more seasons to earn a spot in the Pro Bowl. Thus, the hardworking former Michigan State star, has become recognized as one of the outstanding centers in the game. This is also evidenced in the voting of the 1976 Ye Old Rams Awards as Saul emerged with the honor of Outstanding Interior Offensive Lineman. With the retirement at the end of 1974 of 15-year veteran Ken Iman, Saul earned the starting spot on a team that went 12-2 in 1975 and continued in 1976 with a 10-3-1 record, winning the NFC Western Division title for the fourth straight year. Prior to 1975 Saul showed the versatility he possessed in playing center, guard, tackle, tight end, and was even considered a candidate for linebacker, a position he held in his college days. In those early years with the Rams, Rich also contributed through his hard working performances on the specialty teams. He was an eighth round draft choice of the club in 1970, a season in which he was named the team's Rookie of the Year by Ye Old Rams.

COLLEGE: Despite a knee injury that plagued him his senior year, Saul still made All-Big Ten and Academic All-American as a defensive end and linebacker.

PERSONAL: Saul was born in Butler, Pa., and attended high school in that city. Twin brother, Ron, plays with the Washington Redskins and an older brother, Bill, is a retired NFL player. Rich and wife Eileen live in Westminster, Calif., where Rich works for John G. Valentine & Associates, a commercial and industrial real estate and leasing firm in the off-season.

Games Played: 1970(14), 1971(14), 1972(14), 1973(14), 1974(14), 1975(14), 1976(14).

Scales, Dwight — Wide Receiver-Kick Returner — Grambling
Height: 6-2 — Weight: 170 — Born: 5-30-53 — Second Year

PRO: Dwight Scales saw a modicum of action as a rookie with his biggest moment coming in the 59-0 defeat of Atlanta when he teamed with QB James Harris on an 80-yard touchdown play. A fifth-round Rams draft choice in 1976, Scales caught three passes for 105 yds., returned four punts for an avg. of 11.5 and seven kickoffs for an 18-yd. avg. In the pre-season Scales displayed his big play potential when he caught six passes for 139 yards and a 23.2 average. He became one of 10 rookies to make the club, and performed in every game.

COLLEGE: At Grambling in three years Scales caught 87 passes for 1,704 yds., a 19.6 avg. and 27 TDs. He was named to College Division II All-American and he earned four college grid letters.

PERSONAL: Scales, a native of Little Rock, Ark., attended Robert E. Lee High at Huntsville, Ala. Scales is a talented guitar player whose college major was health and physical education. He's single.

Scribner, Rob Running Back UCLA
Height: 6-0 Weight: 200 Born: 4-9-51 Fifth Year

PRO: Baseball has its utility men and football its special teamers, with extras. One of the latter is Rob Scribner, who happens to be more than a special teamer in that he is a running back, a receiver, a punt returner and a kickoff returner, plus a so-called "disaster" quarterback, in the event the regulars are unavailable. Last year Scribner's rushing duties were limited to two attempts (one a touchdown). In four years he has returned 16 kickoffs an average of 24.5 yards (including a 57-yard spurt) and eight punts for a 6.8 average. Scribner, a free agent from UCLA, carried 42 times for a 5.1 average in 1975 after injuries had sidelined front-liners. His best day as a pro came that year against Green Bay when he gained 82 yards on 12 carries and a touchdown and also caught two passes. Ankle problems have bothered him throughout his pro career, and last January he underwent surgery to reconstruct the right ankle.
COLLEGE: Scribner's versatility was such that he played quarterback, linebacker, defensive back and wishbone quarterback, respectively, during four UCLA seasons. A rival coach called him one of the best rugby players ever developed in the United States.
PERSONAL: In the off-season Scribner sells life insurance for Massachusetts Mutual Life and joins his wife, Jennifer, in working with Professional Athletes Outreach, a training ministry. They and their son, Joshua Scott, 2, reside in Los Angeles. Scribner, who attended Van Nuys (Ca.) High was born in Dallas, Texas, son of a medical doctor.

Simpson, Bill Safety Michigan State
Height: 6-1 Weight: 180 Born: 12-5-51 Fourth Year

PRO: Bill Simpson is one of the young leaders of a Ram secondary that may have been the best in the NFL in 1976. At least from the standpoint of team interceptions, few can argue with that assessment since Los Angeles led pro football's band of thieves with 32. Simpson got his share of those, picking off four and returning them 62 yards to run his three-year totals to 11 for 152 yards. Ten of those 11 thefts have come in the last two seasons as Bill led the team in that department in 1975 with six, and that doesn't count three others he got in the playoffs that year. A freckled, red-haired ball-hawker out of Michigan State, Simpson resembles Huck Finn, but the likeness disappears when he steps on the football field. Opposing receivers and runners can attest that Bill Simpson is a "hitter." The club's regular free safety since taking over the job in the 11th week of the 1974 campaign, Simpson was named to the Pro Football Writers Association All-Rookie team that year after being drafted by the Rams on the second round. His performance as a sophomore earned him the honor as the club's "outstanding defensive back" by vote of Ye Old Rams.

COLLEGE: Simpson was All-Big Ten his last two years at Michigan State, and was a Sporting News All-American following his senior season. He intercepted 12 passes in his Spartan career, and later played in the East-West Shrine and Hula Bowl games. In '72 he also led the Big Ten in punt returns (13.6 avg.) and punting (40.5 avg.).

PERSONAL: Born in Detroit, Simpson attended Royal Oak Shrine High in that city. He and wife Lynn reside in Garden Grove, Ca., where Bill spent last off-season keeping in shape and playing on the Ram basketball team.

Slater, Jackie Tackle Jackson State
Height: 6-4 Weight: 270 Born: 5-27-54 Second Year

PRO: A third-round 1976 draft choice, Jackie Slater performed in all 14 games plus two playoffs and demonstrated enough potential for an outstanding NFL career. He saw action at both tackle positions as well as the special teams. As a swing tackle, he backed up both starters, John Williams and Doug France.

COLLEGE: Following his senior season, Jackie Slater was named first-team All Black America, South-Western Athletic Conference all-star team for the third straight year, first team All-American by the Pittsburgh Courier and played in the College All-Star game. He earned four varsity football letters and one in track and was the first recipient of the Walter Payton Physical Education Award.

PERSONAL: Jackie was born at Jackson, Miss., and attended Wingfield High in that city where he participated in football, track and basketball. He is a member of Phi Beta Sigma. Jackie and wife Annie Ruth spend the off-season in Meridian, Miss. where Jackie is a substitute teacher in the public school system.

Games Played: 1976(14).

Thomas, Pat Cornerback Texas A&M
Height: 5-9 Weight: 180 Born: 9-1-54 Second Year

PRO: Pat Thomas saw plenty of action for a rookie as he was the only cornerback reserve, in addition to being a kickoff returner on occasion, bringing back seven for a 20.0-yd average. Thomas, who played in every game, was also an outstanding contributor to special team efforts, especially punt coverage. Thomas was selected on the second round and was the second player picked in 1976 by Los Angeles.

COLLEGE: Pat Thomas was an All-American by AP, UPI, NEA and the American Football Coaches. At Texas A&M he intercepted 13 passes to snap the school mark of 12 which was held by Ram safety Dave Elmendorf. He played in both the Hula and Japan Bowls. Pat earned four letters at Texas A&M and captained the team his junior year.

PERSONAL: Thomas was born at Plano, Texas, and attended high school there where he competed in football and track. He, wife Lenith, and Patrick, Jr., 1, reside at Plano in the off-season where Pat works in real estate for McKee Realtors and spends his spare time coaching retarded children.

Williams, John Tackle Minnesota
Height: 6-3 Weight: 265 Born: 10-27-45 Tenth Year

PRO: John Williams has spent half his career with Los Angeles and the last four of those five years have seen the Rams win four divisional championships, partly because of outstanding running offenses and better than average pass protection. Last year, for example, the Rams led the NFC in rushing. Williams, an offensive starter the last four years, is obviously one of the keys in this success. Los Angeles gave Baltimore a first draft choice for Williams before the 1972 season, one which the ex-Baltimore Colt spent playing behind Harry Schuh. Williams, a first round pick by Baltimore in 1968, replaced Schuh in 1973, and has been a fixture at right tackle since. With Baltimore he spent a year at defensive end, then moved to guard when he was a starter for two years, including Baltimore's 1970 Super Bowl title team.
COLLEGE: At Minnesota Williams was All-Big Ten tackle and he also played fullback and defensive end. Following his senior season he participated in the College All-Star and Coaches All-American games.
PERSONAL: Williams attends the University of Maryland's dental school in the off-season. He was born in Jackson, Miss. and attended Libbey High at Toledo, Ohio. He and wife Colleen have two sons, Jay, 7, and Justin, 5.

Games Played: 1968(14), 1969(13), 1970(14), 1971(14), 1972(14), 1973(14), 1974(14), 1975(14), 1976(14).

Young, Charles Tight End USC
Height: 6-4 Weight: 235 Born: 2-5-51 Fifth Year

PRO: When the Rams acquired the rights to Charles Young last March in a trade with Philadelphia for the rights to quarterback Ron Jaworski, they may have paved the way toward signing one of the best tight ends in the NFL. At least Young's four-year performance would testify to that. Recognized as an All-Pro, Young has averaged nearly 50 catches a season, including an NFC-leading 63 in 1974 for 696 yards and three touchdowns. As a rookie the year before, he led all league tight ends with 55 receptions for 854 yards, a 15.5 average and six touchdowns. Young, of course, was named "rookie of the year" that season, and he has populated most of the all-star teams ever since, including making the Pro Bowl roster after his first three campaigns. Last year, with the Eagle offense geared toward running the ball more than in the past, Young caught 30 for 374 yards. He was a first draft choice of the Eagles in 1973.

COLLEGE: Charles Young was a consensus All-American on a national champion USC team where he lettered three years in football. He was the top pass-catching tight end in Trojan history and played in the Hula Bowl, Coaches All-American and College All-Star games.

PERSONAL: Charles was born at Fresno, Ca. and starred in five sports at that city's Edison High. He earned a California real estate license in 1974. He and wife Colleen have a son, Charles II, 3.

Youngblood, Jack — Defensive End — Florida
Height: 6-4 — Weight: 242 — Born: 1-26-50 — Seventh Year

PRO: In the Pro Bowl game last January, Jack Youngblood "sacked" the opposing quarterback three times, and perhaps this is as indicative as anything of just how big a star the Rams' big defensive end has become. In a game of stars, he was a standout, just as he has been while wearing a Ram uniform in the 1970s. In 1976 he was once again so proficient at his job that the sportswriters across the country who form the respected 101 Committee of Kansas City voted him the NFC's top defensive player for the second year in a row. In addition, Jack earned the club's "most valuable player" award from Ye Old Rams and the Daniel F. Reeves Memorial Award as the MVP from the Southern California Sports Broadcasters for the second consecutive year. For the record Youngblood also was again a unanimous All-Pro pick, winning All-NFL first team honors from AP, NEA, the Pro Football Writers Association and Pro Football Weekly, and All-NFC first team from AP, Pro Football Weekly, The Sporting News and UPI. The Pro Bowl appearance was his fourth straight and he also won Ye Old Rams "outstanding defensive lineman" honors for the third year in a row. In unofficial statistics, Youngblood recorded 11 solo "sacks" and three assists on the season, and he also turned in a big performance in the NFC Championship Game which included a fumble recovery. It was the second straight season in which Youngblood has peaked during the playoffs. In the 1975 playoff win over St. Louis, Youngblood had one of his finest days, sacking the Cardinal quarterback once, forcing a fumble, blocking an extra point try and returning a pass interception 47 yards to a touchdown. An understudy to Deacon Jones as a rookie after he was drafted on the first round in 1971, Youngblood shared the left end position with Fred Dryer the following season before Dryer moved over to his more familiar right end spot in '73. It was then that Youngblood began to blossom, making second team on several All-Pro and All-NFC squads. The honors escalated in '74 and even more so in 1975 when he became a unanimous All-Pro.

COLLEGE: Each year was better than the preceding one in the college career of Youngblood, who won first team All-American honors as a senior at Florida from the Sporting News and the Football Writers Association. He was named second team by AP, and he participated in the College All-Star and Senior Bowl games. He was also named the Most Valuable Defensive Lineman in the Southeast Conference in 1970.

PERSONAL: Youngblood, the Rams' player representative to the NFLPA, was born in Jacksonville, Fla., and went to Jefferson County High School in Montecello, Fla. In the off-season he and wife Diane live in Westminster, Ca., and Jack works for BankAmericard in a public relations capacity. He is active in community affairs, spearheading the Ram's participation in the 'Right to Read' program in Los Angeles, and he was the top Ram vote-getter in the Dodge-NFL Man of the Year balloting, in 1976.

Games Played: 1971(14), 1972(14), 1973(14), 1974(14), 1975(14), 1976(14).

Youngblood, Jim Linebacker Tennessee Tech
Height: 6-3 Weight: 239 Born: 2-23-50 Fifth Year

PRO: Two events paved the way for Jim Youngblood (no relation to Jack) to gain a starting job at left linebacker in 1976. The first occurred during the expansion draft when Seattle selected Ken Geddes, who had been the regular there. Linebacker coach Tom Catlin then moved third-year pro Rick Kay into the spot and the former Colorado player stayed there until he suffered a knee injury during the third game against the New York Giants and was operated upon the next day. Youngblood, who had been playing behind middle backer Jack Reynolds, slipped into the position and turned in a highly creditable year, including two pass interceptions, one a key 26-yard return in the narrow 20-17 victory over Detroit. Youngblood, a second-round choice by Los Angeles in 1973, played in 14 games and started 11. He played in every league game in 1975, too. The one time Tennessee Tech gridder also is an outstanding special teamer.

COLLEGE: Youngblood was named Little All-American by the Football Coaches Association and AP as well as the Ohio Valley Conference's Defensive Player of the Year in both 1971 and 1972. Following his senior season he played in the Hula Bowl and College All-Star games.

PERSONAL: Youngblood, who attended high school at Jonesville, S.C., was born in Union, S.C. During the off-season he is employed by Unique Patios of Santa Ana as both a salesman and public relations representative. He and wife, Mary, and daughters, Tara, 6, and Marcia, 3, live at Fountain Valley, Ca.

Ram Rookies & One-Year Vets

Alexander, Nate Defensive End Cal-Riverside
Height: 6-3 Weight: 275 Born: 4-16-47 NFL Exp: R

Birthplace: Los Angeles. Residence: Los Angeles. His high school days and a tour in the army prepped Alexander for his collegiate playing days at L.A. Harbor JC and Cal-Riverside, where he finished up in 1974. Alexander earned a Ram contract after impressing scouts at Ron Waller's Football Camp this spring.

Best, Art Running Back Kent State
Height: 6-1 Weight: 205 Born: 3-18-53 NFL Exp: R

Birthplace: Camden, N.J. Residence: Gahanna, Ohio. Best first made a name for himself when he gained 700 yards as a sophomore at Notre Dame. He transferred to Kent State after three years at South Bend, and as a senior last year he gained 1,030 yards on 194 carries for a 5.3 average and 10 touchdowns. Best, who has a 4.55 speed, played in the North-South game and All-American Bowl following his senior year. He is a sixth round draft choice.

Bockwoldt, Rod Safety Weber State
Height: 6-1 Weight: 186 Born: 11-18-54 NFL Exp: R

Birthplace: San Diego, Ca. Residence: Clearfield, Utah. A quarterback at Weber State, Bockwoldt will get a shot at safety with the Rams. A versatile athlete with 4.8 speed, Bockwoldt split his time between quarterback and wide receiver his first three college years before settling in as the signal caller in '76 when he finished second in the NCAA Division II passing with 183 completions in 313 attempts, a 58.5 percentage, 2,268 yards and 17 touchdowns. He set an NCAA record with 21 straight completions in a game against South Dakota State. He is an eighth round draft choice.

Butler, Gregg Cornerback Howard
Height: 5-10 Weight: 175 Born: 12-26-52 NFL Exp:1

Birthplace: Washington, D.C. Residence: Landover, Md. Signed as a free agent by the Rams prior to the 1976 season after he had spent a year with the WFL Philadelphia Bell, Butler was traded to the Eagles during the summer, but did not make the club. He is back for a second look. The former All Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference star was a receiver as well as a cornerback and punt return man in college.

Brudzinski, Bob Linebacker Ohio State
Height: 6-4 Weight: 230 Born: 1-1-55 NFL Exp: R

Birthplace: Fremont, Ohio. Residence: Fremont, Ohio. A defensive end and four-year letter winner for the Buckeyes, Brudzinski was named Ohio State's MVP last year as well as first team All-American from AP, The Football Writers, Kodak and The Football News. He also earned second team All-American honors from UPI and NEA and for the second straight year made All-Big Ten. The Rams will try their No. 1 draft choice at outside linebacker. In 43 games for Ohio State, he recorded a total of 214 tackles and assists and in '76 had four interceptions.

Caudill, Barry Center Southern Mississippi
Height: 6-3 Weight: 238 Born: 9-21-54 NFL Exp: R

Birthplace: Jackson, Miss. Residence: Brandon, Miss. A 12th round draft choice, Caudill improved his speed and overall play during his senior season, prompting the Rams to pick him. A football and basketball star at Brandon Academy as a prep, Caudill runs the 40 in 5.2.

Cromwell, Nolan Safety Kansas
Height: 6-1 Weight: 196 Born: 1-30-55 NFL Exp: R

Birthplace: Smith Center, Kan. Residence: Ransom, Kan. A wishbone quarterback in college for his last two years, Cromwell will be tried at safety by the Rams, the same position he played as a freshman and sophomore starter. A second round draft choice, the versatile Cromwell gained 1,124 rushing yards as a junior, third highest in NCAA history for quarterbacks. In his first start at the position he gained 294 yards rushing, most ever by a quarterback in the NCAA and a Kansas record that broke Gale Sayers' mark of 283. That year as a junior he was the Big Eight Player of the Year. He added 540 yards last season before injuring a knee at mid-year. Cromwell is also an accomplished track man, competing in the decathalon with a best of 6,806 points and setting a Big Eight mark in the 400 meter hurdles of 49.5.

Delaney, John Place Kicker Nichols
Height: 6-0 Weight: 210 Born: 11-29-52 NFL Exp: 1

Birthplace: Webster, Mass. Residence: Webster, Mass. Delaney was signed by the Rams last year, but was released, so he is back for a second look. He attended Worcester Junior College before transferring to Nichols, where he played in 1974 and 1975.

Edwards, Oscar Cornerback-Safety UCLA
Height: 5-11 Weight: 188 Born: 12-8-53 NFL Exp: R

Birthplace: Long Beach, Ca. Residence: Los Angeles. Known as Dr. Death at UCLA, Edwards was a first team All-American by both UPI and Kodak. As a junior transferring from Riverside City College, Edwards became All-Coast. Signed as a free agent, he will be tried at either corner or safety.

Ferragamo, Vince Quarterback Nebraska
Height: 6-3 Weight: 208 Born: 4-24-54 NFL Exp: R

Birthplace: Torrance, Ca. Residence: Carson, Ca. A fourth round draft choice, Ferragamo will be "coming home" since he is from Southland and attended Banning High in Wilmington. He later went to California before transferring to Nebraska where he had an enviable passing record the last two years, completing 57.6 of his aerials (224 of 389 for 3,224 yards and 32 touchdowns). He was named All Academic Big Eight, first team All-American by Football News, third team by AP and honorable mention by UPI.

Frazier, Cliff Defensive End-Tackle UCLA
Height: 6-4 Weight: 256 Born: 11-23-52 NFL Exp: 1

Birthplace: St. Louis, Mo. Residence: Los Angeles. Drafted on the second round in 1976 by Kansas City, Frazier was traded last pre-season to Philadelphia for a pair of draft choices, then was placed on the Eagles' injured reserve because of ankle problems. He was traded to the Rams for a conditional draft choice in the spring. Frazier won several honors as a noseguard at UCLA, including NEA All-American first team, All-Pac Eight, All-Coast from AP and UPI and Co-MVP on the Bruin team his senior year. He attended Baldwin, Mo. High and Fort Scott Community College before moving to UCLA.

Fulton, Ed Guard Maryland
Height: 6-3 Weight: 250 Born: 1-27-55 NFL Exp: R

Birthplace: Abington, Pa. Residence: Sparta, N.J. Fulton is a four-year letter winner at Maryland who capped his senior season by being named All-Atlantic Coast Conference and honorable mention All-American by AP. A guard with 5.0 speed, Fulton was drafted on the third round.

Gollhardt, Mark Punter San Diego State
Height: 6-3 Weight: 200 Born: 11-9-52 NFL Exp: R

Birthplace: Pomona, Ca. Residence: Walnut, Ca. A Southern Californian all the way, Gollhardt attended Pomona High, Mt. San Antonio and Chaffey junior colleges before going on to San Diego State. He was signed as a free agent by the Rams.

Gustafson, Ron Wide Receiver North Dakota
Height: 6-1 Weight: 185 Born: 10-8-52 NFL Exp: 1

Birthplace: Duluth, Minn. Residence: Duluth. This will be his third try with an NFL club after being drafted on the 12th round by New Orleans in '75, then was signed by Atlanta in '76. As a senior in '74, Gustafson was All-North Central Conference, catching 26 passes for 439 yards, returning 20 kickoffs for 506, returning 14 punts for 164 and rushing for an additional 232 yards while serving as team captain.

Harris, Averell Wide Receiver Shippensburg State
Height: 6-1 Weight: 187 Born: 5-30-55 NFL Exp: R

Birthplace: Sewickley, Pa. Residence: Sewickley, Pa. Harris, a free agent who hails from the same home town as coach Chuck Knox, holds three Shippensburg records — most yards gained receiving in a game, 172; most yards gained receiving in a season, 954; and most touchdowns in a season, nine. He was named his team's MVP.

Henson, John Running Back Cal Poly (SLO)
Height: 6-1 Weight: 228 Born: 12-9-52 NFL Exp: 1

Birthplace: Pinole Valley, Ca. Residence: San Luis Obispo, Ca. Selected by Green Bay on the 14th round in 1976, Henson was one of the Packers' last cuts. In three years at Cal Poly (SLO) he gained 1,023 yards on 218 carries for a 4.7 average. He signed with the Rams as a free agent.

Hickman, Donnie Guard USC
Height: 6-2 Weight: 261 Born: 6-11-55 NFL Exp: R

Birthplace: Flagstaff, Ariz. Residence: Flagstaff, Ariz. A fifth round draft choice, Hickman was a two-year starter and three-year letterman for the Trojans who was named second team All-American by both UPI and NEA his senior year as he helped USC to a Rose Bowl victory. With 5.0 speed, he had the athletic ability to play in the backfield at Flagstaff High.

Jamerson, Ron Running Back USC
Height: 6-2 Weight: 205 Born: 2-7-52 NFL Exp: R

Birthplace: Bakersfield, Ca. Residence: Pacoima, Ca. Jamerson played two seasons (1975-76) at USC following two years at the College of Canyons. He is a product of Sylmar High (Ca.) Free agent Jamerson was a reserve flanker in 1975 and a reserve cornerback in 1976.

Jodat, Jim Running Back Carthage
Height: 5-11 Weight: 210 Born: 3-3-54 NFL Exp: 1

Birthplace: Milwaukee, Wis. Residence: Milwaukee, Wis. Jodat, a round 12 selection in 1976, suffered a leg injury in the pre-season and spent last year on the injured reserve. At his Kenosha, Wis. school Jodat gained 4,079 yards to become the top college rusher in the State of Wisconsin's history. He gained 1,203 yards as a senior. He lost but one match of 33 as a college wrestler.

Johns, Freeman Wide Receiver Southern Methodist
Height: 6-1 Weight: 175 Born: 12-20-53 NFL Exp: 1

Birthplace: Waco, Tex. Residence: Wichita Falls, Tex. Johns played in two games in 1976 before being sidelined by a knee injury that required surgery. The tenth round 1976 selection averaged 21.1 yards on 44 catches as a collegian, half coming his senior year when his totals were 22 for 452 and four touchdowns. He caught seven passes in the 1976 pre-season for 89 yards.

Jones, Eary Defensive End-Tackle Memphis State
Height: 6-4 Weight: 270 Born: 7-5-55 NFL Exp: R

Birthplace: Memphis, Tenn. Residence: Memphis. Jones has the distinction of having started for four consecutive years in the defensive line at Memphis State where he won numerous honors. Draft on round four, Jones has fine speed for a big man, running the 40 in 5.0.

Kahn, Mitch Center UCLA
Height: 6-2 Weight: 230 Born: 3-1-55 NFL Exp: R

Birthplace: Los Angeles. Residence: Villa Park, Ca. A three-year letterman at UCLA, Kahn had excellent junior and senior seasons which saw him win All-Coast and All-Pac Eight mention. A free agent who attended Kennedy High in La Palma, Kahn closed out his collegiate career by playing in the Senior Bowl.

Long, Carson Place Kicker Pittsburgh
Height: 5-10 Weight: 210 Born: 12-16-54 NFL Exp: R

Birthplace: Pottsville, Pa. Residence: Pittsburgh, Pa. Holder of virtually every kicking record at Pitt, Long had a brilliant senior year, converting 16 of 23 field goal tries and 42 consecutive PATs without a miss. It ran his career marks to 43 of 71 FGs for a .606 percentage, best in NCAA history. An 11th round draft choice, Long holds the Pitt distance record of 52 and is the top scorer in NCAA history with 256 points on 127 PATs and 43 FGs. He is a conventional kicker.

McCartney, Ron Linebacker Tennessee
Height: 6-1 Weight: 220 Born: 7-29-54 NFL Exp: 1

Birthplace: Charleston, W.Va. Residence: Charleston, W.Va. McCartney spent his rookie year on the injured reserve. He was drafted on the second round in 1976, the third player picked by Los Angeles. At Tennessee he was a defensive end, but the Rams hope to use him at outside linebacker. He has a 4.7 clocking in the 40. He was tabbed the outstanding defensive player in the Liberty Bowl as a junior and in his senior year was named All-Southeast Conference first team by UPI and second team AP, which gave him honorable mention All-American. He played in the East-West Shrine game.

Marderian, Greg Defensive Tackle USC
Height: 6-4 Weight: 250 Born: 1-15-52 NFL Exp: 1

Birthplace: Burbank, Ca. Residence: Granada Hills, Ca. A three-year letterman whose last season at USC was 1974, Marderian played part of 1975 with the WFL Southern California Sun, then was in the camp of the Oakland Raiders last year before being waived. He caught on with Atlanta, and played one game for the Falcons late in the season. The Rams signed him as a free agent.

Nuzum, Rick Center Kentucky
Height: 6-4 Weight: 238 Born: 6-30-52 NFL Exp: 1

Birthplace: Parkersburg, W.Va. Residence: Lakewood, Ca. Ill luck has dogged this fifth round Los Angeles pick since 1975. He spent the last two years on the injured reserve. Nuzum is an ex-guard and defensive end who played in the East-West Shrine Game and the Hula Bowl.

Peterson, Don Tight End Boston College
Height: 6-4 Weight: 236 Born: 8-12-55 NFL Exp: R

Waddy, Billy Wide Receiver Colorado
Height: 5-11 Weight: 185 Born: 2-19-54 NFL Exp: R

Birthplace: Wharton, Tex. Residence: Boling, Tex. Drafted on the second round by the Rams, Waddy, who runs the 40 in 4.4., may be the fastest man ever picked by the club. He was the fourth leading kickoff return man in the nation last year, bettering Cliff Branch's old Colorado mark in the process. He averaged 25.7 with 566 yards on 22 returns, including a 95-yard touchdown against Kansas. Used as a running back his first two years, Waddy was switched to wingback as a junior and to split end last year when he averaged 31.0 on six catches, including a 72-yard TD against Oklahoma. Waddy's four-year rushing totals were 1,538 yards on 297 carries for a 5.2 average and 12 touchdowns. He also caught a career 31 passes for 475 yards, a 15.3 average and two scores.

Walker, Glen Punter-Kicker USC
Height: 6-2 Weight: 220 Born: 1-16-52 NFL Exp: R

Birthplace: Torrance, Ca. Residence: Gardena, Ca. Walker was signed as a free agent because his class had graduated two years previously, even though 1976 was his senior year at USC in which he punted 57 times for 2,139 yards, an average of 37.5 with a long of 56. Only 11 of his punts were returned for a net of five yards. He kicked 10 of 19 field goals, four over 40 yards and a long of 46, plus 41 of 48 points after touchdown. In 1975 he punted 61 times for 2,397 yards, an average of 39.3 with a long of 59.

Watley, Ira Tackle San Diego State
Height: 6-6 Weight: 265 Born: 11-1-51 NFL Exp: 1

Birthplace: Sacramento, Ca. Residence: San Diego, Ca. Watley attended Hoover High in San Diego, later Mesa Junior College and San Diego State where he lettered two years and was a co-captain his senior season. In '75 he played with the Chicago team of the WFL, then signed with Miami, but was released after a tryout in '76. He signed a free agent contract.

Williams, Jeff Guard Rhode Island
Height: 6-4 Weight: 256 Born: 4-15-55 NFL Exp: R

Birthplace: Gloucester, Mass. Residence: Gloucester, Mass. At Rhode Island Williams was All-East and All-New England following his senior year. He lettered four seasons, at tight end as a freshman and tackle the remaining three. He was a fifth round draft choice by the Rams.

Wingard, Walter Running Back-Kick Returner Dayton
Height: 5-10 Weight: 190 Born: 11-10-52 NFL Exp: R

Birthplace: Dayton, Ohio. Residence: Dayton. Wingard, a free agent, earned three varsity letters at Dayton and in 1975, his senior year, he was team captain and the MVP. He played six games for Hawaii of the World Football League.

*Ram record In San Francisco †Anaheim

The Ram Story 1937-1977

1937 On February 13th, the National Football League grants a Cleveland franchise to Homer Marshman and associates, a prominent group of local businessmen. Hugo Bezdek is named head coach. As the league's rookie franchise, Rams finish with a 1-10-0 record. Bob Kelley is named radio play-by-play announcer at start of season.

1938 Assistant coach Art Lewis takes over team after three losses and Rams win three of remaining seven games.

1939 Earl "Dutch" Clark becomes head coach and Lewis remains as assistant. Rams hit .500 mark for first time with 5-5-1 record. Parker Hall joins team as rookie tailback. Hall is not named on official NFL all-league first team, but wins Joe Carr Trophy as NFL's official Most Valuable Player.

1940 Team drops back to 4-6-1 record. Johnny Drake, powerful Ram fullback, is named to first team all-NFL.

1941 Daniel F. Reeves and Fred Levy, Jr. purchase Rams in June and hire, as general manager, Billy Evans, former sports columnist, American League umpire and Cleveland Indians general manager. Team wins first two games but drops next nine to finish in cellar.

1942 Evans resigns before 1942 season. Charles "Chile" Walsh replaces Art Lewis as assistant coach. Lt. Reeves and Major Levy depart to enter armed forces. Bob Kelley is named club secretary. Team finishes 5-6-0.

1943 Clark resigns. Chile Walsh is named head coach, but NFL grants Rams permission to suspend operations for one season because of wartime difficulties. Reeves buys out levy.

1944 Chile Walsh become general manager and appoints Buff Donelli as head coach. Pick-up team finishes 4-6-0.

1945 Donelli joins military service. Walsh names his brother, Adam Walsh, as head coach, with George Trafton and Bob Snyder as assistants. Third round draft choice (a future) Bob Waterfield from UCLA joins team as T-formation quarterback and leads Rams to 9-1-0 season for first divisional title in team's history. On icy field, Rams defeat Washington Redskins, 15-14, at Cleveland for world title. Waterfield becomes first player to receive unanimous vote for official NFL Most Valuable Player award. Walsh is named coach of the year. Eddie Kotal joins team as chief scout and Bill John begins 29-year tenure as business manager.

1946 Reeves moves franchise to Los Angeles early in the year. After disappointing 6-4-1 season, both Walshes resign.

1947 Reeves assumes duties of general manager. Bob Snyder is named head coach with Joe Stydahar as new assistant. Team is talent-heavy but injury-ridden in 6-6-0 season. Reeves sells part interests to former partner Levy and to Edwin and Harold Pauley and Hal Seley.

1948 Clark Shaughnessy joins staff as advisory coach. On September 3rd Synder resigns and Clark Shaughnessy becomes head coach. Team wins four of last five to post 6-5-1 mark.

1949 Team wins first six games, then hangs on to win first divisional title since moving west. Heavy rain holds down L.A. crowd as Philadelphia Eagles skid to 14-0 win over Rams in NFL title game. Rookie Norm Van Brocklin joins team and gives Rams top-notch one-two quarterback punch. Elroy Hirsch has fine rookie year.

1950 NFL absorbs AAC, leaving Rams as lone pro team in Los Angeles after four years of two-league existence. In February, Stydahar becomes head coach, replacing Shaughnessy. Club opens new offices on Beverly Boulevard. Bill Granholm begins 18-year tenure as equipment manager. Team sets 22 league records in rolling to divisional title tie. Waterfield and end Tom Fears lead play-off win over Bears, 24-14, but following week in Cleveland, Lou Groza's late field goal stops Rams' title hopes, 30-28.

1951 Rams win third straight divisional title on final day of season, then defeat Cleveland at the Coliseum, 24-17, on 73-yard pass, Van Brocklin to Fears, for first world title since moving to L.A.

1952 After team loses three straight pre-season games and drops league opener by big score, Stydahar resigns. He is replaced as head coach by Hamp Pool. Team loses two of next three, but wins last eight to tie for divisional title. Rams lose playoff in Detroit. Rams trade 11 players to Dallas for rookie Les Richter, who then enters army for two years. Waterfield retires.

1953 Club co-owner Harold Pauley passes away. Team compiles 8-3-1 record, losing three games by total of eight points to finish third in division. Rams defeat world champ Lions in both games.

1954 Bonus choice Bill Wade and tradee Les Richter both join Rams as rookies two years after going from college into military service. Team has disappointing 6-5-1 mark. All assistant coaches resign. Pool soon follows suit.

1955 On January 26th, Rams hire Sid Gillman, head coach at University of Cincinnati, to replace Pool. Fine defensive year and clutch field goal kicking by Richter give team hard-fought 8-3-1 record for divisional title. Cleveland wins title game at Coliseum by one-sided score.

1956 In form reversal, team loses five consecutive early-season games and finishes in cellar tie with 4-8 record.

1957 Ram owners sign five year operational pact and name former Ram publicist Pete Rozelle as general manager. Team loses squeakers on road to 49ers and Lions, finishing 6-6-0, but only two games behind divisional leaders.

1958 In pre-season trade, Van Brocklin goes to Eagles. Bill Wade sets many Ram passing marks en route to 8-4-0 year.

1959 Team has general letdown and many injuries for worst season since 1937, finishing 2-10-0. Ollie Matson, acquired in big trade, is workhorse at fullback. On last day of season, Gillman and staff resign.

1960 Following death of Bert Bell, Pete Rozelle is named NFL commissioner. Elroy Hirsch replaces Rozelle as Ram general manager. Bob Waterfield is named Ram head coach. Team shows slight improvement over previous year with 4-7-1 record.

1961 Rams trade Bill Wade, Del Shofner, John Guzik for Zeke Bratkowski, Lindon Crow and 1962 first draft choice, which makes it possible to draft both Roman Gabriel and Merlin Olsen. Revamped Rams finish strongly after slow start, but still show 4-10-0 deficit.

1962 Harland Svare replaces Don Paul as defensive line coach. Rams lose four of first five games by narrow margins, then show only occasional surges of success en route to 1-12-1 year. Waterfield resigns after eighth game. Svare named interim head coach. On December 27, in closed auction, Reeves reacquires control of Rams, purchasing full interests of co-owners Pauley, Levy, Seley and Bob Hope.

1963 Reeves sells 49% interest in Rams to Gene Autry, Bob Reynolds, Leonard Firestone, Paul A. O'Bryan, Robert Lehman, J.D. Stetson Coleman and Joseph A. Thomas. Svare is retained. Les Richter retires before season. After 0-5 record, Gabriel is reinstalled as starting QB and plays last nine games without relief, guiding team to 5-4 mark and season record of 5-9-0.

1964 Rams sign ten-year pact to play in "new look" Coliseum's "stadium-within-a-stadium." Fourteen rookies make the season squad. Club finishes fifth with 5-7-2 record.

1965 After winning only one of first ten, Rams take three of last four against top two teams in each division, but Svare is dismissed.

1966 After a court fight, George Allen is released by George Halas from his assistant coaching duties with the Chicago Bears to become head coach of the Rams. NFL and AFL merge in spring. Bob Kelley, "Voice of the Rams" since the club's beginning in 1937, dies in September. Rams, practicing at new facilities in Long Beach, have a chance to finish second in West until final game, which they lose to World Champion Packers. Thus, the team finishes 8-6, the best record since 1958.

1967 After 17 years on Beverly Boulevard, club moves from offices to new building on Pico. Training camp is also moved to California State College at Fullerton after five years at Chapman College in Orange. Equipment manager Bill Granholm leaves club after 18 years to take position in league office. Rams record first unbeaten pre-season in history with six wins, including victories over first-ever AFL opponents, San Diego and Kansas City. Team completes finest win-loss season ever with 11-1-2 league record to win Coastal Division Championship, the first title of any kind since 1955, then loses to Green Bay in Western Conference Campionship Game. Club sets new team record in attendance by playing before 1,230,059 fans and also establishes new club mark for 14 games in attendance: 848,090.

1968 After Playoff win over Cleveland in January, team finishes regular 1968 season with 10-3-1 record, second in Coastal Division to Baltimore's 13-1 mark. Attendance is over one million for second straight year and Ram defense sets new 14-game NFL record for fewest yards allowed. On Dec. 26, Allen is dismissed as head coach, but is re-hired two weeks later.

1969 After 20 years with the Rams as a player, general manager and assistant to the president, Elroy Hirsch leaves club to become athletic director at the University of Wisconsin. He is replaced by Public Relations Director Jack Teele, and John Sanders becomes Assistant General Manager. Team wins its first 11 games — to win Coastal Division with 11-3 record before losing to Minnesota in Western Conference title game, 23-20. New Ram attendance records are set for the year (1,307,989 for all 22 games) and the regular season (866,160 in 14 games). Quarterback Roman Gabriel is unanimous choice as the NFL's Most Valuable Player.

1970 Playoff Bowl victory over Dallas in January heads Rams toward their 25th year in Southern California. With the completion of the merger of the NFL and AFL, the Rams join San Francisco, Atlanta and New Orleans in the Western Division of the National Conference of the new 26-team National Football League. Rams finish second to 49ers with 9-4-1 record and set a new league 14-game attendance mark of 904,979. George Allen's contract is not renewed.

1971 On April 15, owner Daniel F. Reeves dies of cancer in New York. His longtime friend and business associate, William A. Barnes, becomes President and General Manager. Tommy Prothro, successful head coach at UCLA, replaces Allen. Playing the toughest schedule in the NFL, the Rams finish with an 8-5-1 record, second to 49ers in the NFC West.

1972 In a history-making move, Baltimore Colts owner Carroll Rosenbloom trades the Baltimore franchise to Robert Irsay in exchange for the Rams. Irsay, a Chicago-based industrialist, had purchased the Rams from the estate of the late Dan Reeves. The transaction was completed and announced on July 14. Rosenbloom, the most successful owner in the NFL over the last two decades, brings with him to Los Angeles Don Klosterman, former Loyola University star quarterback who had been Rosenbloom's general manager in Baltimore. Klosterman assumes title of Executive Vice-President and General Manager. After five years at Cal State Fullerton, Rams move training camp site to Cal State Long Beach. After 6-7-1 season, all coaches are dismissed.

1973 An observer in '72, Rosenbloom begins to make changes early in 1973, and they pay off quickly. His choice for head coach, former Detroit assistant Chuck Knox, leads team to 12-2 season, winningest in Rams history, and Knox becomes "Coach of the Year." Roman Gabriel is traded to Philadelphia and the new quarterback, former San Diego Charger John Hadl, is NFC "Player of the Year." Rams win NFC West title, but lose in first round of playoffs to Dallas. Other changes introduced by Rosenbloom include return to blue and gold uniforms. Club returns to Cal State Fullerton for summer training.

1974 Carroll Rosenbloom's son, Steve, takes over as Assistant to the President. Formerly, he had learned the pro football business in Baltimore, and had worked his way up to President of the Colts. After 3-2 start, Rams trade John Hadl to Green Bay for five draft choices in bold move that stuns the football world. Hadl's backup, James Harris, becomes starter and leads team to 10-4 record, its second straight NFC Western title and its first playoff victory since 1951 (a 19-10 win over Washington) before the Rams bow to Minnesota, 14-10, in the conference championship game.

1975 With defense allowing second fewest points in NFL history over a 14-game season (135), Rams win third straight NFC Western title by completing 12-2 season. After playoff victory over St. Louis, however, they bow to Dallas in the NFC Championship Game. The 34-8 record over the last three years is best in the NFL.

1976 With Knox' contract up for renewal, he is given new five-year pact by Rosenbloom with a five-year mutual option. Once again Rams win NFC West title for fourth straight year with 10-3-1 record, then beats Dallas, 14-12, for their first playoff victory on the road before 24-13 NFC Title Game loss at Minnesota. Quarterback injuries mar season and rookie Pat Haden becomes fourth different playoff QB in four years under Knox. Rams' 351 points is highest in the NFC.

1977 Rams spearhead new Coliseum configuration which reduces capacity from 91,038 to 71,432 with 40,000 seats closer to the action as a result of moving field westward and adding new east end bleachers. On May 12 Rams agree to terms with free agent QB Joe Namath, formerly of the New York Jets.

Try Ralphs hot dogs just for kicks.

They're out of this world. Just like all the super lunch meats, selected cheeses and prepared salads you'll discover in Ralphs delightful Deli department. Before the game, or after it, you'll come out a hero if you offer your family the delicious deli treats you'll find at Ralphs. More of what you want has helped make Ralphs the #1 supermarket where you live.

Include Ralphs party trays in your game plan.

Try this strategy: next time you have a Rams post-game party, bring home a delicious party tray from Ralphs. Tempting Ralphs party trays are hard to resist. You can choose from savory tidbit trays, smoked fish trays, delicious gourmet trays, and others. Or, Ralphs International Appetite Shoppe will make one up to suit your wishes. Just phone the International Appetite Shoppe at Ralphs, or drop by in person. For the phone number of the International Appetite Shoppe nearest you, see the attached flap.
